VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.

DR. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has restored this most destructive cross with extraordinary dispatch, after the failure of some of the most eminent physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time——As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Cumberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover-street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the Bank there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

1 Post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dols.
1 do. of the Bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of J. S. Ridout, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. Brent endorsed to Stark, dated 3d July, 1802, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by Nicholson, cashier, in favor of Greetham & Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Stoddert, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and descriptions.

As the [illegible] was SHIPPEN and the HAND received of a [illegible] approve Mr. Peter and stand, if his [illegible] hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be [illegible] so far as we are informed, the villain perpetrated the act in a manner [illegible] He has a genteel appearance. He was on a dark brown black mare, marken [illegible] and a dark hat. He was on foot [illegible] have had accomplices concerned, and will probably change his [illegible]

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will cause and bring to conviction the perpetrator or perpetrators of the above robbery, or One Thousand Dollars for the recovery of the whole of the money, or proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

Pennsylvania House

AND

MYLAN'S CITY TAVERN.

THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed to the above old stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wooden as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the Rev. Messrs. Way's printing-office, and the centre market, opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Evans's bookstore.——The house contains twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with fine, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a great measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

Twenty-five Dollars Reward

RAN AWAY from me 28th July, JAMES MORGAN a handsome, well built, portly, black lad. He is not quite of a jet black; is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and aged about 20 years. He has a pleasant and sensible smile, a fine set of teeth and a large scar on his left temple. He rocks a little in his walk. He is respectful and complaisant. James is an excellent house-waiter, and a pretty good cook; his attention has latterly been devoted to the work of a farm. He can read and write; he is, indeed, fond of reading, and ambitious to improve his mind.

He was seen in Baltimore 2d August, inst. His mother (whose letters have seduced him) lives in Easton, on Eastern shore;—he will probably make thither, though he may perhaps take a circuitous route.

James is bound by indenture till 28 years of age, under the laws of Pennsylvania.

The above reward will be given if he be confined in the jail of Baltimore, so that I may get him again.

JOHN SHIPPEN,
Of Shippensburg, Pennsylvania.

N. B. Masters of vessels and others are warned not to carry him or harbour him, as the law will be rigidly enforced.

16 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in the city, two cooper apprentice boys, one named WILLIAN BOURNS, an Irish lad of about 22 years of age, with red hair, dressed in a blue round about jacket and trowsers; the other named ROBERT HERVEY, black hair, freckled face, aged about 18 and dressed nearly as the other boy. The said boys took away with them sundry tools and cloaths, among which were some of light maken belonging to their master. The above reward will be paid to any person who will take up said apprentice boys so that I can get them again, or eight dollars for each of them when taken.

PAUL PLACIDE,
Cooper in Fredericktown.

N. B. I do hereby forewarn all persons from harbouring said boys or either of them, and from receiving said articles which they took away with them, as I am resolved to prosecute such offenders with the utmost vigor of the law.

1 1000 - - 17000
1 2000 last drawn ticket

From the above Scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 50000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.

Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral Lottery will be received in payment.

FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL.

Ecole Francoise.

NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translater of the French and English Languages, intend to open the FRENCH SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 43 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficent to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet, grammatical manner, of Teaching.

AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement.

THE Managers of this Lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the Commissioners appointed for reciting the Market-house, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage, to that part of the city, and to the country in general; and beg leave to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement.

As the above Scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable Prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two Blanks to a Prize; and all Prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the Lottery is completed without any deduction, the Managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the Tickets, as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.

Such Prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the Market-house.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the Managers have given bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars, for the due performance of the trust.
