VENEREAL COMPLAINTS.

As Dr. WARNER's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.

——As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Cumberland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover-street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Otterbein's, near the Dutch church.

HIGH-WAY ROBBERY

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, who threatened the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 500 dols.
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 400
1 do. of the Book of Entrance, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Block, dated 6th July, 1805, for 140 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by J. Ingle Hollingshead, cashier, in favor of Cruttenden and Peterman, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The robber was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and a small sum of the bank of Virginia, of the usual sizes and denominations.

[illegible] the SUBSCRIBER, and the HON. Pennsylvania House

AND

MYERS' CITY TAVERN

THE Subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has entered upon the [illegible] stand, to the [illegible] Pennsylvania Avenue, late occupied by Mr. Wilson as a boarding house and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opened, and elegantly fitted. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Way's [illegible] office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Lucas's bookstore.——

——The house contains twenty-six lodging rooms, with fires, besides exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a great measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

Twenty-five Dollars Reward

RAN AWAY from me 28th July, JAMES MORGAN a handsome, well built, portly, black lad. He is not quite of a jet black; is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and aged about 20 years. He has a pleasant and sensible, smile, a fine set of teeth and a large scar on his left temple. He rocks a little in his walk. He is respectful and complaisant. James is an excellent house-waiter, and a pretty good cook; his attention has latterly been devoted to the work of a farm. He can read and write; he is, indeed, fond of reading, and ambitious to improve his mind.

He was seen in Baltimore 2d August, inst. His mother (whose letters have seduced him) lives in Easton, on Eastern shore;—he will probably make thither, though he may perhaps take a circuitous route.

James is bound by indenture till 28 years of age, under the laws of Pennsylvania.

The above reward will be given if he be confined in the jail of Baltimore, so that I may get him again.

From the above Scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 50000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.

Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral Lottery will be received in payment.
