MYER'S CITY TAVERN

THE subscriber respectfilly acquairts his triends and the public in general, that he as renewed from his cid tavern stand, to the refining homes on the Pennsylvania Avenue, 1 being eccupied by N'rs. Wilson as a boarding ! house, and Mr. Weedward's taver, in which he is now eneming a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or board. 18,000 Tickets at 5 dollars each, 90000 ers; being at a commient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store. - These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with threeplaces, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with owing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stalling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that ny prices shall be as heretofire, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enaged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.
