Improved Method
OF TEACHING
THE FRENCH LANGUAGE, (By the Subscriber),
Is placed in a series of 12 volumes and families Phrase—suitable to every capacity.
SCHOOL FOR PUBLIC TUITION, 6, Water-street.
Between South and Calvert streets, Every month, and evening, between 6 & 8 o'clock, for the purpose of private teaching, as well as abroad.

THE new method, here announced, has been lately introduced, and is now successfully practiced by the most eminent French teachers in this state. It is the substance of a work which contains a judicious selection of the most necessary words used in familiar discourse, faithfully translated, and exemplified by well adapted phrases; thus presenting a compact yet perspicuous view, of the most essential part of the language of conversation, by which means a person of ordinary capacity may be taught, in a short time, (with little study, and without the necessity of making translations) to read and speak the French Language with correctness, clearness and fluency.

The subscriber being fully conversant in this new mode of tuition, and possessing the qualifications requisite to convey to learners an easy and graceful pronunciation, most respectfully tenders his services to the ladies and gentlemen of Baltimore and its vicinity, to teach them the French Language accordingly—and he has the assurance to hope, that if learned with the confidence of persons desirous to learn, he shall be able to give them ample and prompt satisfaction.

He begs leave to inform Germans and other foreigners, that he is sufficiently familiarized with the German language to be able to teach them French or English (or both) with perseverance and dispatch.
J. BROWN.

Method of teaching, may be had by applying at airy and commodious house, No. 15, Fell'sstreet, (Fell's Point)—where all the branches usually taught in such seminaries will be attended to with fidelity, and, he hopes, with success. It is his intention, should sufficient encouragement offer, to set apart a room in which he proposes teaching the dead languages—on the 16th of September next is fixed upon as the their children under his care, will please to

A fresh supply of DOCTOR COOLEY'S Vegetable Elixir, is just received and for sale by GEORGE MARIS, Druggist, No. 140, Market-street.
A Remedy, for exceeding every other yet used, for Consumption, asthma, spitting of blood, coughs, shortness of breath, and every other species of disease to which that organ of life, the lungs, is particularly exposed.
Complaints of the lungs have always been considered the opprobrium of medicine (or reproach to the art of physic) and it has long been a desideratum in medical science, that a remedy might be devised which should check this outlet of human life. The many thousands which yearly fall a sacrifice to this insidious disease, (phthisis pulmonalis, or consumption of the lungs), ever since my acquaintance with this disease, which is almost thirty years) so excited my commiseration, that a large share of my time has been employed in investigating the cause and cure of it; and, from my most unre-mitted attention and constant research, I have the happiness to proclaim to the world, that in my Vegetable Elixir, a speedy, safe, and effectual remedy is generally to be had. It is needless for me to dwell too long on the praises of this medicine; those who use it will be immediately convinced of its superior virtues in dispelling every distressing symptom in the complaints above enumerated; those hectic heats will in a few days be allayed, the night sweats will disappear, the cough diminishes rapidly, and the patients who, previous to the use of this medicine, were panting for breath, and fast approaching to dissolution, will find themselves restituted in the most unexpected manner.
So wonderful has been the relief, that to express their gratitude, frequent solicitations have been made to have their testimonials made public of the unrivalled virtues of this medicine; those who experience its benign and salutary effects by a short trial, will need no other recommendation.

It is not pretended that this medicine will cure every disease to which suffering humanity is liable, as is the case with most patent medicines; diseases which are as completely opposite as an acid and an alkali, they will assist, are all to be cured by one simple remedy. Such weak impressions have with much propriety brought most patent drugs into disrepute.—But the Vegetable Elixir is calculated for one class of diseases only, viz. those to which the lungs are exposed, and I need not observe that they terminate in consumptions. The precursors or harbingers of this hitherto intracurable malady, (until the discovery of the Vegetable Elixir) are spitting of blood, pains in the breast and sides, coughs, difficulty in breathing, and a great number of complaints, which slender and delicate constitutions are so frequently laboring under, which if attended to immediately on their commencement, will easily be obviated, and those in the last stages will be much alleviated, and many of them effectually cured.— Price 75 cents per bottle.

On the 2d of this month, I HAVE my intended servant, Christian Stribler, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he has not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very young, about 18 years high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt, cloth trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recalled. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Backman, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.
