ISAAC CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, and therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

RAN AWAY

FROM the subscriber living in Alexandria, Virginia, on the 7th of July, 1865, a negro man named LIGE; stout made; about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; low legged; black bushy head; green sunken eyes; very much scarred with the small pox; has a scar on his right cheek bone; bad countenance; fond of bad company and strong drink. He has always been used to crafting in the Chesapeake bay; and thereby accumulated much company of his own colour and description. When spoken to he is apt to stammer; much given to lying, and lastly to stealing. He was seen from the 12th to the 18th July in various parts of Baltimore with negroes, last at Fell's-Point, looking for a berth, probably on board a craft, as he was never at sea. I will give 30 dollars if taken and put in any jail, and information given me in Alexandria, or Mr. Wm. Ball of Baltimore; it brings home all expenses paid to the amount of 25 dollars, not exceeding.
REUBEN JONSTON.
Masters of vessels and others are cautioned not to harbor or employ the above fellow, at their peril.

July 3 d

For Sale,

A TRACT OF LAND in Baltimore county, containing about six hundred acres; 4 hundred of which are supposed to be in wood. On this tract there is a handsome piece of meadow, and a young thriving apple orchard. This land is about 28 miles from the city of Baltimore, and not far from Colonel O'Donnell's country residence, purchased of Mr. William Buchanan.

ALSO,
A TRACT OF LAND containing about 500 acres, about 14 miles from the city of Baltimore, west of Randall's town. On this last mentioned tract there is a stone dwelling HOUSE, just finished, with convenient cellars, two rooms and a passage on the first floor three rooms and a passage on the second floor, a parrot; a new stone stable, cornhouse and coach house, an overseer's house with two rooms, lately repaired at the expense of two hundred dollars; kitchen and other out houses, an excellent apple orchard, with other good fruit trees, and good garden.
On both places there is water, not exceeded in the county; and good clover lots. No place can exceed them in respect of health. There is a proportionate part of woodland on the last place.
I will permit the purchasers to seed the ensuing fall, or I would seed for them. The dwelling house on the last mentioned farm might be immediately taken possession of by the purchaser. Presuming that no person will purchase without viewing the premises, I do not go into detail.
Both of the above places are convenient to mills; there is a mill not more than a quarter of a mile from the last mentioned place; a good neighbourhood, and the Episcopal and Presbyterian churches within five miles. An indisputable title will be given on the payment of the purchase money.
