Presbyterian church Lotter.
THE managers respectfully inform the public, that they have this day completed the drawing of 4000 tickets, and that the wheel is now gainer 896 tickets. The unavoidable absence of Mr. Samuel Vincent, obliges the managers to adjourn the drawing till Monday, the 23d inst. when it will be resumed, and continued without delay until finished.—A few tickets yet remain unsold, and may be had of the managers, and at the usual places, and at the original price, until Saturday the 14th inst. after that date, should any remain on hand, they will be disposed of to an individual who will regulate the price according to circumstances.—N. B. Agreeably to the scheme the first blank after 4000 tickets is entitled to 200 dollars; therefore those who have drawn prizes, and intend to renew them, should be prompt in their application.

- 1000 Dollars Reward.
ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villain who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.

- To be Let,
And entered upon immediately,
A CONVENIENT three story dwelling HOUSE, situated on Paca-street, near the western market and next door to the French Consul. Its situation is an object for health, and its prospect of the river and surrounding landscape make it a desirable dwelling. For particulars, enquire of ROBERT EDWARDS, carpenter, west end of Pratt street, and intersection of New City Road

- For Sale or to be Let,
A PLANTATION in Govens town opposite Mr. Wood's tavern, containing near 40 acres, on which are erected two frame dwelling houses, one and a half stories high, a good large barn and stabling, with an elegant spring-house, and as good water as any in the county. There are about 25 acres of excellent woodland; 8 or 9 acres, with apple, peach, cherry and other fruit trees; and about 12 acres of meadow and the remainder in timothy, clover and oats.

- On the 2d of this month,
I GAVE my indentured servant, Christian Stubb, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hanoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked with the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.

Diffolution of Co-Partnership.
THE co-partnership heretofore existing in the firm of CLAGETT & WARFIELD, between the subscribers, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All those having claims against the said concern, are desired to present them to Wm. K. Clagett for settlement, and those indebted are desired to make immediate payment to him, he being duly authorized to settle the same.
Wm. K. CLAGETT
DENNIS WARFIELD.
The business heretofore carried on by Clagett & Warfield will be continued by the subscriber, at No. 63, Smith's wharf.
September 6 Wm. K. CLAGETT.

Notice.
THOSE who yet remain indebted to the estate of Doctor MOORE, deceased, are again earnestly solicited to settle their accounts immediately. Wishing to return the estate settled soon, and finding it impossible to call on every delinquent, shall, in a very short time, place every unsettled balance in the hands of an officer, to be collected in the shortest manner.

Bottled Porter, Ale and Cider.
THE public are respectfully informed that they can be supplied with the above articles, either wholesale or retail, at the Bottling cellar, No. 96, North Howard street, where they are constantly received, for sale, from the most famous breweries, foreign and domestic.
The proprietors have fitted up their front cellar particularly for the accommodation of the public—and persons who may be thirsty after an afternoon's walk to the park, can be pleasantly refreshed by a wholesome beverage on calling as above.
BOARDING
A few gentlemen can be accommodated with general Boarding & Lodging, or boarding only, at the above place.

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.
HIGHWAY ROBBERY
YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, who took the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, he being to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the bank there.
The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and forty dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were
1 post note of the Bank of Virginia for 1000 dolls.
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. signed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1835, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.
A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higgins, then, cashier, in favor of Greenham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.
There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.
As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter of his senses, that it is not hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, good countenance, and had a general appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankin pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.
Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber, and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.
WILLIAM WILKINS,
Cashier of the Bank of Columbia.
George-Town, July 31. (A. S.)

Pensylvania House
AND
MYER'S CITY TAVERN
THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Way's printing-office, and centre market opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store.—These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.
I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.
