RAN AWAY
FROM the subscriber living in Alexandria, Virginia, on the 7th of July, 1855, a negro man named LIGE; stout made; about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; bow legged; black bushy hair; green sunken eyes; very much scarred with the small pox; has a scar on his right cheek bone; bad countenance; fond of bad company and strong drink. He has always been used to crafting in the Chesapeake bay, & thereby accumulated much company of his own color and description. When spoken to he is apt to stammer; much given to lying, and lastly to stealing. He was seen from the 12th to the 16th July in various parts of Baltimore with negroes, last at Fell's-Point, looking for a birth, probably on board a craft, as he was never at sea. I will give $50 dollars if taken and put in any jail, and information given me in Alexandria, or Mr. Wm. Ball of Baltimore; if brought home all expenses paid to the amount of 25 dollars, not exceeding. REUBEN JONSTON. Masters of vessels and others are cautioned not to harbor or employ the above fellow, at their peril. August 6

Fifty Dollars Reward.
A BSCONDED from the subscriber on the 29th of July last, a negro man named GENERAL, of a dark complexion, about 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, and has a very fine look when spoken to. I cannot state any notable mark about him, except his under lip, which is always sore in summer season, & he is obliged to wear something over it (generally leaves)—I am informed he has a free pass, and calls himself WILLIAM JOHNSON, but no county seal annexed to it (as the law requires for all free passes). Any person or persons that will apprehend the said negro General, & bring him to me, or put him in jail, so I get him again, shall receive the above reward, from ROBERT BISPHAM, Of Richmond county and state of Virginia N. B. I suppose he will make for Baltimore August 28

FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL.

AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement. JOSEPH PAILLOTTE, South Charles-street. 6m-1*

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the Managers have given bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars, for the due performance of the trust.

French Night School.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to raise to a wonder in the heart of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March. JOSEPH PAILLOTTE. N. 1000 Dollars Reward.
ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon. DAVID HARRIS, Cashier. July 29

Fifty Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, from on board the brig Sophia, in October last, a bright mulatto man, who calls himself WILLIAM HILL—he is 24 years of age, about 6 feet 1 inch high, has a large scar under his left eye, and a down look when spoken to—fond of spirituous liquors. As the above fellow has taken with him a number of clothes, it is not necessary to describe his dress, as it is probable he may change it. Wm. H. HANSON, No. 69, Cumberland Row. N. B. I forewarn all persons from harboring or concealing said fellow, he being a slave. September 3

Twenty Dollars Reward,
WHEREAS on Wednesday morning the 21st inst. a mulatto man, who called himself CHARLES PROUD, hired of the subscriber a HORSE for that day, to perform a journey to Elkridge, which he stated to be the residence of his father—and as the said person has not since returned the horse; it is apprehended that he has disposed of him in an improper manner—I will therefore give the above reward to any person who will deliver the said man and horse to me in Baltimore, or one half of the sum for either the one or the other of them. The said Charles appeared to be about 5 feet 10 inches high, stout and well made and about 25 years of age; the only part of his dress which is at present recollected, was a pair of check trousers and a check shirt—he is a ship carpenter by trade, and is well known in Baltimore. The horse is a pale black, with a short switch tail, has a white star in his forehead, he is about 15 hands and a half high, 8 or 9 years old, and was shod all round when taken. The saddle has a plated cantle, the stirrups are plated and the leathers of the stirrups are nearly new. The bridle has a flat snaffle bit, leathers bound round the head with yellow ribbon. HENRY CROWL. August 28

Dissolution of Co-Partnership.
THE co-partnership heretofore existing in the firm of CLAGETT & WARFIELD, between the subscribers, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All those having claims against the said concern, are desired to present them to Wm. K. CLAGETT for settlement, and those indebted are desired to make immediate payment to him, he being duly authorized to settle the same. Wm. K. CLAGETT, DENNIS WARFIELD. The business heretofore carried on by Clagett & Warfield will be continued by the subscriber, at No. 62, Smith's wharf. Wm. K. CLAGETT. September 6

Notice.
THOSE who yet remain indebted to the estate of Doctor Moore, deceased, are again earnestly solicited to settle their accounts immediately. J. GLASGOW, Admr. July 26

BOARDING A few gentlemen can be accommodated with genteel Boarding & Lodging, or boarding only, at the above place. July 6

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.
HIGHWAY ROBBERY
YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there. The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were
1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for $2000
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1855, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Greenham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.
There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.
As the ATTACK was sudden, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, good countenance, and had a grizzled appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankin pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.
Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon. WILLIAM WHANN, Cashier of the Bank of Columbia, George-Town, July 31. (A 5) d

Pennsylvania House
AND
MYER'S CITY TAVERN
THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Way's printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's book-store.—These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.
I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage. SOLOMON MYER. Washington July 16, 30th year of the Independence. July 31
