Improved Method OF TEACHING THE FRENCH LANGUAGE,

(By the Subscriber), Displayed in a series of Vocabularies and familiar Phrases—suitable to every capacity. SCHOOL FOR PUBLIC TUITION, 6, Water-street.

Between South and Calvert-streets. Every morning and evening, between 6 & 8 o'clock, the rest of the day devoted to private teaching, at home or abroad.

HE new method, here announced, has been lately introduced, and is now successfully practised by the most eminent French teachers in these states. It is the substance of a work which contains a judicious selection of the most necessary words used in familiar discourse, faithfully translated, and exemplified by well adapted phrases; thus presenting a compart, yet perspicuous view, of the most essential part of the language of conversation, by which means a person of ordinary capacity may be anught, in a short time, (with little study, and without the drudgery of making translations) READ and SPEAK the French Language with correctness, elegance and fluency,

The subscriber being fully conversant in this new mode of tuition, and possessing the qualifications requisite to convey to learners an easy and graceful pronunciation, most respectfully tenders his services to the ladies and gentlemen of Baltimore and its vicinity, to teach them the French Language accordingly : and he has the assurance to hope, that if honored with the confidence of persons desirous to learn, he shall be able to give them ample and prompt satisfac-

He begs leave to inform Germans and other foreigners, that he is sufficiently familiarised with the German larguage to be able to teach th m French or English (or both) with perspicuity and disputch J. BROWN. A Prespectus, explanatory of the Improved Method of teaching, may be had; y applying at the School.

French Night School.

OTICE is hereby given, that I the suhscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charlesstreet; but as to promise to do wonders in Le half of my pupils-I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and schollars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

N Saturday evening, between dark and ten by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefiy small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villians who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vanit : all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of eld defreed neter, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indot sements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation .- About the hor this act was committed, a person was seen will an iron class in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrecious robbery.-The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him alfull and free pardon___

MYER'S CITY THERN

THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his I thiends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's taven, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommedation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's shook-store .-------These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hetel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress. I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my clook-room las increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public pationage.
