1000 Dollars Reward. N Saturday evening, between dark and ten O'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was fercibly opened by thieres, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villians who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault : all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and ies contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indursements on them entirely filled their backs., The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation .- About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him affull

TATHEREAS on Wednesday morning the 21st inst. a mulatto ma, who called himself CHARLES PROUD, hired of the schscriber a HORSE for that day, to perform a journey to Elkridge, which he stated to be the residence of his father-and as the said person has not since returned the horse; it is apprehended that he has disposed of him in an improper manner-I will therefore give the above reward to any person who will deliver the said man and horse to me in Baltimore, or one half of the sum for either the one or the other of them. The said Charles appeared to be about 5 feet 10 inches high, stout and well made and about 25 years of age; the only part of his dress which is at present recollected was: a pair of check trowsers and a cheek shirt—he is a ship carpenter by trade, and is well known in Baltimore. The horse is a pale black, with a short switch tail, has a white star in his forehead, he is about 15 hands and a half high, 8 or 9 years old, and was shod all round when taken. The saddle has a plated cantle, the stirrups are plated and the leathers of the stirrups are nearly new. The bridle has a flat snaffle bit, leathers ! bound round the head with yellow ribbon.

Pennsylvania House

MYER'S CITY TAVERN HE subscriber respectfully acquaints his I friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue. lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's taven, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Ways' printing-office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's thook-store. --- These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.

I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged: I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patrorage !
