20 Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 7th of July, a Negro man named LIGE. He is an able strong fellow, large bushy head, green eyes, small pitted with the small pox, very black, has a scar on his cheek, remarkable bad countenance, fond of company and strong drink. It is presumed that he is harbored by the free negroes of this town. Whoever takes up the said negro and lodges him in jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward and all reasonable charges paid by me.
N. B. He follows the sea-faring business.

Side of Maryland, City of Baltimore, ss.
By THOROWGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of New York, is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this PROCLAMATION—hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons who have been, or who have come from the said city of New York, or from any other place, which have been, or who have been at least fifteen days therefrom, excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city is endangered. And in addition to the prohibitions contained in a Proclamation issued by me, on the sixth day of September instant, interdicting the usual intercourse with the city of Philadelphia—the inhabitants of this city and the precincts thereof, are hereby expressly enjoined not to entertain, receive, or admit any person or persons into their houses who may have arrived here from either the city of Philadelphia or New York, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a special license as aforesaid.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.
Given under my hand and the corporate seal of the city of Baltimore, (L. C.) on the 9th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and five.

PUBLIC SALE
Of Houses, Lots and Lands.
By virtue of 2 several deeds of trust to me executed by BENJAMIN OGLE, and in pursuance of the authority and order of Frederick county court, will be sold for the benefit of the creditors of said Ogle, the following houses, lots and lands, situated in Frederick County, viz.
FOUR hundred and fifty three acres of LAND, situate about twelve miles from Frederick-Town, in the vicinity of Creager's-Town, compactly situated, on Hunting-Creek, now in two tenements, each enjoying the water of said Creek, with Meadow, Upland, Timber, Orchards and suitable improvements.
Twenty one acres of LAND, being an out-lot, contiguous to Frederick-Town, well inclosed with a post and rail fence.
A three story brick dwelling HOUSE, partly new, thirty one feet by fifty two feet, fronting on Patrick-street, in Frederick-Town, in a central situation for business, having a store room well fitted up, counting room, passage & cellar; the whole completely finished, and a convenient lot.
A commodious mansion HOUSE, now the residence of Mr. Ogle and family, fronting the public square, in Frederick-Town, with its extensive range of buildings, possessing a Garden, Coach-House, Grain-ry, Meat-House, Kitchen, Stables, Pump, Milk-House, an eligible Lot, with every other convenience, rendered it as a family residence, or for public business, highly inviting.
The above property will be sold at Public Vendue, to the highest Bidder; the sale to commence at Mrs. KIMBELL's, in Frederick-Town, at 10 o'clock, A. M. on WEDNESDAY, the 23d day of OCTOBER, next, and will be continued until the whole is sold.
The terms of sale are, of the whole purchase money, one twelfth part thereof to be paid in hand on the day of sale; one fourth in one month, one third in one year, and the residue in two years from the day of sale, with legal interest thereon; bonds with approved security, to be given conformably thereto, and conveyance to be made upon payment of the whole purchase money.
The quality of every part of the above property is such as to render it worthy of attention; such divisions will be made as shall be found most conducive to the sale thereof, and accommodating to purchasers; those wishing to purchase are therefore invited to view the property, and make application previous to the sale, that arrangements may be made to meet their wish. Plans and title-papers will be shown by the subscriber and Mr. Ogle until the day of sale, when attendance and other needful information will be given by JOHN RITCHIE, Trustee.

ISAAC CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

French Night School.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.
JOSEPH PAULLOTTEE.
N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply.

50 Dollars Reward
RAN AWAY from the subscriber on Tuesday evening last, a German indentured servant man, named HENRY WYLAND, a skin dress by trade, purchased about six weeks ago of Mr. Henry Colless. He is about 45 years old, and fore-cast bald; about 5 feet 5 inches high, and speaks very bad English. Had on a dark blue velvet roundabout jacket, two vests, one a white velvet, the other a dark brown silk; a smul-colored velvet pantaloons and a grey blue turket. He has been seen going through New York. It said runaway is within 50 miles from Baltimore, and I hope for the above reward will be given, or a further at a greater distance the above reward will be paid for reciving him in any jail so that the owner gets him again, and all reasonable charges in legal form.
GEORGE FOEST.
N. B. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said servant in their craft.

The Universal Merchants, &c.
THE Subscriber, Proprietor of the ROYAL GAZETTE AND BAPAMA ADVERTISER, published at Nassau, has been, and purports to continue transmitting, by every opportunity, EARLY and CORRECT information to our soldiers in Europe and America, of the Arrivals, Clearances, Captures, and Misfortunes that may happen to vessels about these and the different West India Islands.
As the procuring and forwarding such information, will occupy much time, and be attended with considerable expence—to assist this attention, it will be necessary that men interested in mercantile and other information, should subscribe with liberality to his Gazette. It is published twice a week, price eight dollars and a half per annum.—One half in advance.

RAN AWAY
FROM the subscriber living in Alexandria, Virginia, on the 7th of July, 1805, a negro man named LIGE; stout made; about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; bow legged; black bushy head; green sunken eyes; very much scared with the small pox; has a scar on his right cheek bone; had countenance; fond of bad company and strong drink. He has always been used to crafting in the Chesapeake bay, & thereby accumulated much company of his own colour and description. When spoken to he is apt to stammer; much given to lying, and lastly to stealing. He was seen from the 15th to the 18th July in various parts of Baltimore with negroes, last at Fell's Point, looking for a birth, probably on board a craft, as he was never at sea. I will give 30 dollars if taken and put in any jail, and information given me in Alexandria, or Mr. Wm. Ball of Baltimore; if brought home all expenses paid to the amount of 25 dollars, not exceeding.
REUBEN JOHNSTON.
Masters of vessels and others are cautioned not to harbor or employ the above fellow, at their peril.

SECOND
Prebyterian Church Lottery.
THE managers respectfully inform the public, that they have this day completed the drawing of 4000 tickets, and that the wheel is now gainer 866 dollars. The unavoidable absence of Mr. Samuel Vincent, obliges the managers to adjourn the drawing till Monday, the 23d inst. when it will be resumed, and continued without delay until finished.—A few tickets yet remain unsold, and may be had of the managers, and at the usual places, and at the original price, until Saturday the 14th inst. after that date, should any remain on hand, they will be disposed of to an individual who will regulate the price according to circumstances.
N. B. Agreeably to the scheme the first blank after 4000 tickets is entitled to 200 dollars; therefore those who have drawn prizes, and intend to renew them, should be prompt in their application.

1000 Dollars Reward.
ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault; all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 300 dollars each, of this office; the indentures on them entirely filled the cracks. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices enquire of them make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.
DAVID HARRIS, Cashier.
July 29

Fifty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber, from on board the brig Sophia, in October last, a bright mulatto man, who calls himself WILLIAM HILL.—He is 24 years of age, about 6 feet 1 inch high, has a large scar under his left eye, and a down look when spoken to—fond of spirituous liquors. At the above fellow has taken with him a number of clothes, it is not necessary to describe his dress, as it is probable he may change it.
Wm. H. HANSON,
No. 69, Cumberland Row.
N. B. I forewarn all persons from harboring or concealing said fellow, he being a slave.
September

Twenty Dollars Reward,
WHEREAS on Wednesday morning the 21st inst. a mulatto man, who called himself CHARLES PROUD, hired of the subscriber a HORSE for that day, to perform a journey to Elbridge, which he stated to be the residence of his father—and as the said person has not since returned the horse; it is apprehended that he has disposed of him in an improper manner—I will therefore give the above reward to any person who will deliver the said man and horse to me in Baltimore, or one half of the sum for either the one or the other of them. The said Charles appeared to be about 5 feet 10 inches high, stout and well made and about 25 years of age; the only part of his dress, which is at present recollectred was; a pair of check trousers and a check shirt—He is a ship carpenter by trade, and is well known in Baltimore. The horse is a pale black, with a short awitch tail, has a white star in his forehead, he is about 16 hands and a half high, 8 or 9 years old, and was shod all round when taken. The saddle has a plated cantle, the stirrups are plated and the leathers of the stirrups are nearly new. The bridle has a flat snaffle bit, leathers bound round the head with yellow ribbon.

Bottled Peter, Ale and Porter.
THE public are respectfully informed that they can be supplied with the above articles, either whole sale or retail, at the Bottling Cellar, No. 96, North Howard street, where they are constantly received, for sale, from the most famous brewers, foreign and domestic.
The proprietors have fitted up their front cellar particularly for the accommodation of the public—and persons who may be thirsty after an afternoon's walk to the park can be pleasantly refreshed by a wholesome beverage on calling as above.
BOARDING.
A few gentlemen can be accommodated with genteel Boarding & Lodging, or boarding only, at the above place.
July 6

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.
HIGHWAY ROBBERY
YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.
The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were
1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dollars
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.
A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Gresham and Deveroux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.
There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.
As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, narrow pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.
Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.
WILLIAM WHANN,
Cashier of the Bank of Columbia.

Pennsylvania House
AND MYER'S CITY TAVERN
THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not excelled by any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Wags' printing office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Evans's book-store.—These houses contain twenty-six lodging rooms, with fire-places, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and coffee rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring, is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighbourhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.
I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged; I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL.
Ecole Francoise.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 43 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of Teaching.
As I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement.
