And in addition to the prohibitions contained in a Proclamation issued by me, on the sixth day of September instant, interdicting the usual intercourse with the city of Philadelphia—the inhabitants of this city and the precincts thereof are hereby expressly enjoined not to entertain, receive, or admit any person or persons into their houses who may have arrived here from either the city of Philadelphia or New York, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a special license as aforesaid.

PHILIP MOORE, Clerk D. C. Md. TO THE PUBLIC. No book could be offered, which stands in less need of an opinion and recommendation—The want of such a book as "The New American Clerk's Magazine, and Complete Practical Confeyancer," has been long and generally complained of, and in numerous instances severely felt, by the people of the State of Maryland in particular.

With a view of facilitating the communication of information, necessary to the interest and happiness of the people, the above work was undertaken, and it is believed, has been executed in a manner that must be extensively useful; it is inconsiderable forwardness, & will be published in the course of this summer.

CONDITIONS. 1. It shall be neatly and curiously printed in a handsome duodecimo volume, on excellent paper, and an elegant new type. 2. It will contain between three and four hundred pages. 3. It shall be elegantly bound and lettered. 4. The price to subscribers shall be one dollar and twenty five cents, payable on delivery of the work. 5. RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 24th August, an apprentice boy, named JOHN CARROLL; about 17 years of age—had on when he went away, a saffron jacket & trousers and white vest; one is blind of one eye; brown hair, & white short hair. 1000 Dollars Reward. ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of De-Count and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault; all they effected was to tear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indentments on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.
