French Night School. NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as I promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March. JOSEPH PAILLOTTEE. N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply. September 9

Fifty Dollars Reward. ASCONDED from the subscriber on the 29th of July last, a negro man named GENERAL, of a dark complexion, about 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, and has a very fine look when shaven. I can state any notable mark about him, except his under lip, which is always sore in summer season, & he is obliged to wear something over it (generally leaves)—I am informed he has a free pass, and calls himself WILLIAM JOHNSON, but no county seal annexed to it (as the law requires for all free passes). Any person or persons that will apprehend him, and bring him to me, or put him in jail, so I get him again, shall receive the above reward, from ROBERT BISHAM, Of Richmond county, and state of Virginia. N. B. I suppose he will make for Baltimore August 23

1000 Dollars Reward. ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, nearly small change, contained in a small chest, was stolen therefrom. The said chest, containing the said money, was stolen from the subscriber, who was then in the city, and he being unable to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the chest, the thief offered to be bound in the Iron Chest, and mentioned, and his contents. Amongst other bank-notes, there was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; and remnants of them, entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally small in value, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation. About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheelbarrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring the same to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.
