French Night School.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

Any person or persons that will apprehend the said negro General, & bring him to me, or put him in jail, so I give him again, shall receive the above reward, from 1000 Dollars Reward.

ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Grace of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by force, and a sum of money in paper and specie, of a small change, contained in a small wooden box, was stolen therefrom. The villain who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault; all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheelbarrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY
YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.
The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were
1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dols
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Nichol, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Bank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.
A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Crockett and Devoreux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, & Co.
There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.
As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the ROBBERY received a nature to deprive Mr. Peter of the use of his senses, that it is not hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, well built, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, narrow pantaloons, and a blue hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, and may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably charge his clothes.
Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber, and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to the conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.
