"from blockaded ports, publicly and "officially announced to be so, previous to "the sailing of the vessel, and full com-"pensation to the owners of all such "American property taken under any "order of the British government." This would not be going too far, it is merely "to secure indemnity for the past and security for the future."

As to the Spaniards, we can pay ourselves.—There is a great deal of money now in this city from the westward, who will make contracts with any person authorised to receive it. If you [illegible] citizens [illegible] will enable it to be free of all expense to the United States, and also, not to the injury of those to whom it belongs.

AND

COMMERCIAL DAILY ADVERTISER

THURSDAY, October 3, 1805

Proceedings of a meeting in the seventh ward, were handed to us too late for our last paper for insertion in this day's American—they shall appear to-morrow.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

Yesterday, being the second day of Canton Fall Races, the purse of one hundred dollars was won by Mr. Green's bay horse Anti Democrat.

This day will be run for, over said course, the third days purse of one hundred and fifty dollars, three mile heats, by C. C. Ridgely's (of Hampton) gray mare Sting,

J. Jr. Woolsey's (of John) bay mare Diana,

——— Sorrel mare Brunette.

According to the rules of the Baltimore Jockey Club.

FOR THE AMERICAN.

Mr. Pleasants,

SIR,

A WRITER in the Post of yesterday, in as odd a strain of felonious panegyric, as I have seen in any paper for some time, in setting forth the pretensions of Mr. J. J. Wilkinson as a delegate to the next general assembly, among other things has said, because he is the "son" of general Joseph Wilkinson, and the "nephew" of general James Wilkinson commander of the United States army, as also the nephew of the present governor of this State, he has strong claims to support, and that he ought to be elected. "In a republic the merit of a man ought always to be his best passport to preferment." This is an axiom to which no philippic can controvert; in our government, it has not been held, that because a man had a noble patronage, he was the more entitled to obtain offices of honor; or, that because he was the "son" of one great man, or the "nephew" of the other great man, he was better qualified, or that he had a stronger claim on the people; if this doctrine is to prevail, we shall presently see some son, or nephew, of some great man, taking this means, to step into the presidential chair, and all the offices in the country will be filled by the sons of the present, or some future proprietors of them.—This is a doctrine which should be nipped in the bud: it is anti-republican, and has an awful squinting at hereditary succession. —In short, it is the principle of one person climbing into office, on the sole merits of others; which I protest against, and which I hope will never be supported by the voters of this city.

A PLAIN DEMOCRAT.

The Board of Health of Philadelphia report, for 48 hours ending on Monday at 12 o'clock—seventeen cases in the fourth ward.—four in the city—eight admissions into the hospital—four deaths—ten discharged, cured—sixty-three patients in the house—twenty-five of whom are convalescent—and twenty-two adults and fourteen children buried.

The New York board of Health report for Friday 14 cases of fever—and 16 deaths—for Saturday—14 cases—and 11 deaths—for Saturday 8 admissions into Bellevue Hospital—5 deaths—3 discharged, cured—55 patients in the house—and 6 convalescents—for Sunday—5 admissions—3 deaths—55 patients—and 6 convalescents.

Dr. Prudence to his Fellow Citizens.

AGAIN!

Keep Fire in your sitting rooms, morning and evening, and not only change your thin, but continue, henceforth, to wear your thick clothes. This is laconic, let it be remembered.

From the Merchants' Coffee-House Books.

October 2.

Arrived, schooner Maryland, Murphy, 15 days from Havanna—sugars—Thomas Tennant and Isaac M'Kim. Left there, the 24th ult. brig Betsy, Clark; Henry, Allen; Mert, ——, and Two Brothers, Chrese, all of Baltimore, and just arrived: schooner Hope, Dawson, of do. for Matanzas to load; Mary Ann, Edwards, of do. sold; ship Lydia and brig Smilax, of Philadelphia, and a number of others arrived the day we sailed. Passed a ship and a schooner in the bay, bound up.

Also, schooner Two Brothers, Belknap, 19 days from Havanna——sugar——David Stewart. September 11, in the Gulph Stream, spoke brig Mary, May, from Havanna, for Baltimore. 14th, on the coast of Florida, sloop Cordelia, from Jamaica, for New York.

Also, schooner Montserrat, Criswell, 23 days from St. Jago de Cuba—sugar and molasses—Taggart & Calwell. Left on 28th September, ship Hannah, Warner, of Baltimore, unloading; schooner Sally, Watts, of do. Experiment, M'Intosh, of New York, Friendship, Hyger, Philadelphia; Martha & Mary, Ford, Baltimore; Enterprize, (formerly Jonas) of Baltimore, abandoned, found full of water, and brought in by captain Hewes of Philadelphia; Hanket, Carroll, of New York; Jupiter, Read, Philadelphia; Mary, Peterson, Baltimore; Antelope, Snow, do. United States, of New Orleans, from Guarlopes, (which brought a number of condemnations for American vessels which had been brought in there) Vigilant, (formerly a prize) for Philadelphia: brig Elizabeth, Watson, New-York; Eliza, Eels, of Philadelphia; Bonyue Americen, Veacock, Philadelphia; brig Susannah, Criswell, of Philadelphia, brought in by a French privateer, the case before the Spanish tribunal, the privateer seized. Off the Moro, September 9, spoke brig Ceres, Wickham, from Philadelphia; and schooner Adeline, Dameron, from Baltimore. The schooner Alexander Hamilton, from George-Town, bound to New Orleans, was brought in by a French privateer 8th September.

Also, schooner Anne, Peters, from Salem, and President, Walker, from Norfolk.

Charleston, September 29.

Arrived, ship Hope, Archer, 53 days from Liverpool. August 21, in lat. 41, long. 29, captain Archer was boarded by a French privateer ship, under Spanish colors, who detained the ship for some time, and then ordered her into port—[illegible] the captain's pocket-book of [illegible] was on board the privateer. They said she was a national vessel, and that she commenced the Italian engagement with Lord Nelson, in which the Spanish ships fought well, but the French would not fight; they likewise stated, that they were in the engagement—but no dependence could be placed, on what they said. August 28, lat. 43, long. 31, the ever Venus, of Weymouth, 13 days from Bordeaux, bound to Baltimore: the captain stated, that the intelligence of the combined squadron had reached Bordeaux when he sailed.
