

To be Let.

FOR one, two or three years, the dwelling part of the HOUSE, No. 172, Market-street, well calculated for a boarding house, or a large family, being very commodious. Possession may be had immediately. Apply to ROGER & HINCKS, 60 St. Lawrence.

Forty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN or stayed on Sunday night, the 29th ultimo, from the country seat lately belonging to Colonel Hindman, on the Harford road, a light bay HORSE, five years old; has a white stripe down his face, and a very small white spot on his right thigh; his hind feet are also white, and are a little sore, occasioned by a cord. Whoever takes up the said horse, and returns him to the subscriber, in Baltimore, shall receive Ten Dollars reward, and if stolen, a further reward of Forty Dollars is offered for the apprehension of the thief, to be paid on conviction. LEWIS ATTERBURY, August 8.

20 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 7th of July, a Negro man named LIGE. He is an able strong fellow, large bushy head, green eyes, much pitted with the small pox, very black, has a scar on his cheek, remarkable bad countenance, fond of company and strong drink. It is presumed that he is harbored by the free negroes of this town. Whoever takes up this said negro and lodges him in jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward and all reasonable charges paid by me. N. B. He follows the sea-faring business. HENRY FAIRFAX, for RUEBEN JOHNSON, July 18.

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore, By THOROWGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of New York, is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this PROCLAMATION—hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as of all baggage or other goods, which have come from the said city of New York until they shall have been at least fifteen days herefrom excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city is endangered. And in addition to the prohibitions contained in a Proclamation issued by me, on the sixth day of September instant, interdicting the usual intercourse with the city of Philadelphia—the inhabitants of this city and the precincts thereof, are hereby expressly enjoined not to entertain, receive, or admit any person or persons into their houses who may have arrived here from either the city of Philadelphia or New York, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a special license as aforesaid.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.

Given under my hand and the corporate seal of the city of Baltimore, (L.S.C.) more, this 9th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and five.

Ten Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person for apprehending John Brown, who has deserted from the United States brig Hornet, after shipping on board said brig; he is about 23 or 24 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, stout made, smooth face, and speaks broad Irish; had when he went off, a black eye, an old hat, blue jacket and trousers.

Also, the above reward will be given for apprehending John Fullerton, also a deserter from said brig; he is about 35 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, stout made, lame in the right arm, marked with the small pox, and has got a black eye; he had on a blue jacket and trousers, a white ruffled shirt. By birth an Irish man, and speaks broad. The above deserters came in the schooner Phillip, from New York, and it is highly probable they have made for that place.

The public and captains of vessels are requested not to harbour or carry off said Runaways, as the law will be strictly enforced. It is very likely they will change their names. RICHARD HUTCHINS, No. 9, Bond-street, Fell's-Point. d

ELOPED

FROM the subscriber on the evening of the 28th July, a bright mulatto man, named PERRY BENTLY, aged about 30 years, but in appearance not more than two or three and twenty; he is a straight made handsome fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, and rather slender, his visage long and features small, with a direct and steady look when addressed.—He took with him a change of good summer and winter clothing. Any person securing the above described man, so that the subscriber can obtain him, shall receive 20 dollars if taken in the state, if taken out of the state 40 dollars, together with all reasonable charges. 1000 Dollars Reward.

ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indentments on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon. Columbian Inn—continued.

ISAAC CAUSTEN Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.

To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers &c.

To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation. November 27

On the 2d of this month,

I GAVE my indentured servant, Christian Stubr, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he has not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a Hannoverian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked with the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars. THOS. OWEN WILLIAMS, Prince Georges County, near Bladensburg. Jun 14

St. Paul's Parish Lottery.

THE subscribers having been appointed by the vestry of St. Paul's Parish, managers of a lottery authorized by the general assembly of Maryland and the corporation of the city of Baltimore, intended to raise a sum of money for the erection of a parsonage house, and for other purposes, offer to the public the following

SCHEME.

Table with 3 columns: Prize, Dollars, and Amount. 1 Prize of 10000 Dollars, 2 of 2000, 3 of 1000, 8 of 500, 15 of 200, 30 of 100, 60 of 50, 120 of 20, 700 of 10, 5100 of 6. 6040 Prizes, 11960 Blanks—Sum raised, including expence, 15000.

18,000 Tickets at 5 dollars each, 90000 Of the above prizes, 1 of 500 dolls. is allotted to the 1st drawn ticket

Table with 2 columns: Ticket value and Prize amount. 1 200 - after 2000, 1 200 - 4000, 1 200 - 6000, 1 200 - 8000, 1 200 - 10000, 1 500 - 12000, 1 500 - 14000, 1 500 - 16000, 1 1000 - 17000, 1 2000 - last drawn ticket.

From the above Scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 50000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions. Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral Lottery will be received in payment. Prizes in the Cathedral and Second Presbyterian Lottery, will be taken in payment for Tickets.

Five Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED from the service of the subscriber, an apprentice boy, named WILLIAM CLARK, but it is probable he may assume the name of William Price. He went off the 13th ult. He is of slender built, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, and about 16 years of age; and is much freckled; his hair and eyes black. There is some reason to suppose, he has entered on board the United States vessel now fitting out in this port. The above reward and all reasonable charges will be paid if he is returned to the subscriber. WILLIAM CAMP, d

All masters of vessels and others are forewarned, not to carry off or harbour said runaway, at their peril. W. C. Oct. 4

This is to give Notice,

THAT the subscribers of the city and county of Baltimore, have obtained from the Orphans' Court, letters testamentary on the personal estate of WALTER R. DALLAS, late of Back River Neck, deceased. All persons having claims against the said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on or before the 15th of December next, otherwise they may be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All those indebted to said estate are desired to make payment without delay, or suits will be commenced against them without respect to persons. WILLIAM ORAM, WALTER CROOK, Administrators. July 31

For Sale,

A PLANTATION in Harford county, containing 211 acres, and 22 miles from Baltimore, called Horse Range; the post from Baltimore to Philadelphia runs through the middle of the plantation, likewise the mail stage exchanges horses at the place, which is much benefit to the farm, on account of the manure. The dwelling is well situated for a tavern—a frame-house, with four rooms on a floor, and a large kitchen, and stables—about 50 acres in clover; a large and very good garden, and also a large orchard; the land is well adapted for plaster of paris; a meadow can be made of about 50 or 60 acres; the whole lies very good and level; it lies within a quarter of a mile of navigable water, and very convenient to saw mills & to a very convenient market for all kinds of produce. It lies within one mile and a half of Abington. For further particulars enquire of ADAM BREITENODER, No. 33, Bond-street, or CAPT. Wm. DIMONDS, No. 17, Alasanna-street, Fell's-Point. September 12

French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in half of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March. JOSEPH PAILLOTTEE, N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply. September 9

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were 1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dollars 1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500 1 do. of the same for 300 1 do. of the same for 450 1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Greenham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller. There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 190 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations. As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the FUGITIVE received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankin pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward and interest will be made to contain his purchase. WILLIAM WHANN, Cashier of the Bank of Columbia. George-Town, July 31. (A5)
