Forty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN or strayed on Sunday night, the 28th ultimo, from the country seat lately belonging to Colonel Hindman, on the Harford road, a light bay HORSE, five years old; has a white stripe down his face, and a very small white spot on his right thigh; his hind feet are also white, and are a little sore, occasioned by a cord. Whoever takes up the said horse, and returns him to the subscriber, in Baltimore, shall receive Ten Dollars reward, and if stolen, a further reward of Forty Dollars is offered for the apprehension of the thief, to be paid on conviction. LEWIS ATTERBURY, August 8

20 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 7th of July, a Negro man named LIGE. He is an able strong fellow, large bushy head, green eyes, much pitted with the small pox, curly black, has a scar on his cheek, remarkable bad countenance, fond of company and strong drink. It is presumed that he is harbored by the free negroes of this town. Whoever takes up the said negro and lodges him in jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward and all reasonable charges paid by me. J. E. He follows the sea-faring business. HENRY FAIRFAX, for RUEBEN JOHNSON, July 18

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore, By THORNGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore. A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of New York is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this PROCLAMATION—hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whatsoever, as well as of all baggage or other goods, which have come from the said city of New York until they shall have been at least fifteen days therefrom excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city is endangered. And in addition to the prohibitions contained in a Proclamation issued by me, on the sixth day of September instant, interdicting the usual intercourse with the city of Philadelphia—the inhabitants of this city and the precincts thereof, are hereby expressly enjoined not to entertain, receive, or admit any person or persons into their houses who may have arrived here from either the city of Philadelphia or New York, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a special license as aforesaid.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.

Given under my hand and the corporate seal of the city of Baltimore, (L.S.C.) more, this 9th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and five. THORNGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore. September 9, 1805.

A new Academy.

HIGH-STREET, OLD-TOWN.

THE subscriber, recently one of the assistants to the Pantheon Academy, most respectfully informs parents, guardians and others, that in compliance with the wishes of a number of respectable friends, he purposes on the first Monday of September next, to open a SCHOOL, in high street, opposite Renshaw's Tavern, Old-Town, wherein shall be taught to the best of his abilities, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, &c.—together with all the general rudiments of an English education.—He will only prosecute those who may please to entrust children to his care, that every attention shall be paid, both to improvement of their education, and the purity of their morals.

JOHN SKELTON, August 27

Ten Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person for apprehending John Brown, who has deserted from the United States Brig Hornet, after stopping on board said brig; he is about 23 or 24 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, stout made, smooth face, and speaks broad Irish; had when he went off, a black eye, an old hat, blue jacket and trousers.

Also, the above reward will be given for apprehending John Fullerton, also a deserter from said brig; he is about 35 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, stout made, lame in the right arm, marked with the small pox, and has got a black eye; he had on a blue jacket and trousers, a white ruffled shirt. The above deserters came in the schooner Phillip, from New York, and it is highly probable they have made for that place.

The public and captains of vessels are requested not to harbor or carry off said Runaways, as the law will be strictly enforced. It is very likely they will change their names. RICHARD HUTCHINS, No. 9, Bond-street, Fell's-Point, September 25

ELOPED

FROM the subscriber on the evening of the 28th July, a bright mulatto man, named PERRY BENTLY, aged about 29 years, but in appearance not more than two or three and twenty; he is a straight made handsome fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, and rather slender, his visage long and features small, with a direct and steady look when addressed.—He took with him a change of good summer and winter clothing. Any person securing the above described man, so that the subscriber can obtain him, shall receive 20 dollars if taken in the state, if taken out of the state 40 dollars, together with all reasonable charges. PEREGRINE TILGHMAN, Talbot County, July 29. (A 2)

1000 Dollars Reward.

ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indentments on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an Iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon. French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge.—I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 13th of March. JOSEPH PAILLOTTEE, N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply. September 8

Ten Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber on the 22d ultimo, an apprentice boy named JOHN PURSE, by profession a silver smith, nineteen years old, about five feet six inches high, stoops when walking, yellow complexion, very flat nose, coarse voice, has a down look particularly when spoken to—had on when he went away, an olive coloured nankeen jacket, white marseilles waistcoat and yellow nankeen pantaloons. Whoever brings home said boy, shall be entitled to the above reward, and reasonable charges. I hereby caution masters of vessels and others, not to harbor or carry off said boy at their peril. 15 Hundred Dollars Reward.

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horse back, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, who thrust the body of a pistol, and a bundle of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there. The whole amount taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were 1 do. of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 do. 1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500 1 do. of the same for 500 1 do. of the same for 450 1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No 117, in favor of Jos. Hiddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1825, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Greenham and Deveraux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTER was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon. WILLIAM WHANOR, Cashier of the Bank of Columbia. George-Town, July 31. (A2)
