The Subscriber

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, that he has opened a Tavern in that large and commodious House, in Water-street, near the Custom House, in Baltimore, lately occupied by Messrs. Speck and Kerns; from its central situation to the most commercial part of the city, he flatters himself that gentlemen will find a convenience in stopping at his house. Ten gentlemen can be accommodated comfortably as constant boarders, as there are lodging rooms set apart for that purpose, where they will not be interrupted by transient lodgers. Oyster suppers may be had throughout their season, at an hour of the evening till 12 o'clock, and the most assiduous attention paid to every gentleman who will oblige him with their patronage. A complete new Billiard Room in a private and pleasant situation to be let, and horses taken at every, by the public's most obedient servant,

JAMES CLAYLAND.

HANSEATIC HOTEL,

NO. 4,
NORTH GAY-STREET,
NEAR MARKET STREET,

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has opened the above mentioned house, which is large and commodious, in a central and healthy part of the city, contiguous to the banks, auctions, custom house and public wharves, and which he has fitted up (and will always endeavor to keep) in a style of neatness and convenience, adapted to the entertainment and accommodation of travellers, and agreeable to gentlemen who may occasionally resort to the house.

The bed chambers are clean and airy, and proper attendance will be given to keep them so—the back building is provided with good stables for upwards of twenty fine horses, and a roomy shed for carriages, with the entrance from Frederick-street.

The best wines and liquors, will be always kept, and strict attention paid, that every thing shall be executed in a manner to give satisfaction in the hope of deserving public favor and encouragement.

Gentlemen will be accommodated with board and lodging on board only, by the week or quarter.

MORNEWECK & CO.
N. B. Horses taken in at livery on reasonable terms, and attended with the greatest care.

For Sale;

A TRACT OF LAND in Baltimore county, containing about six hundred acres; 4 hundred of which are supposed to be in wood. On this tract there is a handsome piece of meadow, and a young thriving apple orchard. This land is about 28 miles from the city of Baltimore, and not far from Colonel O'Donnell's country residence, purchased of Mr. William Buchanan.

ALSO,
A TRACT OF LAND containing about 300 acres, about 14 miles from the city of Baltimore, west of Randall's town. On this last mentioned tract there is a stone dwelling HOUSE, just finished, with convenient cellars, two rooms and a passage on the first floor three rooms and a passage on the second floor, and a garret; a new stone stable, corn house and coach house; a horse's house with two rooms, lately repaired at the expense of two hundred dollars; kitchen and other out houses, an excellent apple orchard, with other good fruit trees, and good garden.

On both places there is water, not exceeded in the county, and good clover land. No place can exceed them in respect of health. There is a proportionate part of woodland on the last place.

Will permit the purchasers to seed the ensu- ing fall, for I would seed for them. The dwelling house on the last mentioned farm might be immediately taken possession of by the purchaser. Assuming that no person will purchase without viewing the premises, I do not go into details.

Both of the above places are convenient to sailing, there is a small port more than a quarter of a mile from the last mentioned place; a good neighborhood, and the Episcopal and Presby- terian churches within five miles. An instant sale will be given on the payment of the purchase money.

Public Notice.

To all Bakers within the City of Baltimore, and all Shop-keepers that are concerned in selling bread. That we, a few bakers, have consulted one with another that it would be best to give public notice, that if they will not comply with the ordinance, that every loaf they sell must weigh four ounces, or twenty four ounces or three pounds; the ordinance permits no other size. Therefore we came to a resolution, that after this public notice, we will hire such persons as will go about to us many shops and bakers as they can in a day, to try to enforce the ordinance, and buy up such light bread as bakers and shop-keepers sell. Such bakers and shop-keepers are ignorant of the extent of the fine that the ordinance points out, that every loaf that does not weigh a pound and a half or three pounds, is ten cents a loaf fine, and every loaf that has not the baker's name in full on it is ten cents a loaf fine, and the person that buys such light loaves has it in his option to take out a warrant for every loaf, which amounts to sixty five cents a loaf, if the informer will be rigorous. If those bakers and shop-keepers that sell light bread think themselves that they cannot comply with the ordinance, because the ordinance is rigorous to them, let them take the form and privilege of our republican government, and draw up a petition to our honorable body, City Council, to have their grievances removed, but their present proceedings are injurious to such as wish to comply with the ordinance, and injurious to private citizens, and taking advantage of the poor and ignorant, and themselves gain nothing by it, but it is only calculated to give six or seven loaves for twenty five cents to unprincipled speculators, that will eat the taxes paid by the
