

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore, By THOROWGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of New York, is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this PROCLAMATION—hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as of all baggage or other goods, which have come from the said city of New York until they shall have been at least fifteen days therefrom excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city is endangered.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.

Given under my hand and the corporate seal of the city of Baltimore, this 9th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and five.

THOROWGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore. September, 9, 1805.

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore, By THOROWGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the Commissioners of Health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of Philadelphia, is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said Commissioners of Health, issued this PROCLAMATION; hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as baggage or other goods, which have come from the said city of Philadelphia, until they shall have been at least fifteen days absent therefrom, excepting only the public mail, and such persons or things as the Commissioners of Health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city may be endangered.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.

Given under my hand and the corporate seal of the city of Baltimore, this sixth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five.

THOROWGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

Charles L. Boehme, No. 125, Market-street, Baltimore.

CONTINUES to manufacture his goods of sterling silver at nearly one third less price than that which is imported. He has now in his employ several of the best workmen, some of whom have worked in the first manufactories in London, which enables him to have his work executed in the neatest and most masterly manner. From the moderate price, the elegance of his work, and the superior quality of his silver, he is generally manufactured in America, he flatters himself he will secure a preference. He has on hand an assortment of London Jewelry, and plated ware; and of his own manufacturing, coffee and tea pots, sugar dishes, soap basins and cream ewers in sets. Also, soup, table, dessert, and tea spoons & sugar tongs, all of which will match.

French Night School. NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in the half of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as in translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

JOSEPH PAILLOTTE. N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply. September 9

15 Hundred Dollars Reward. YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there. The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were 1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dolls 1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500 1 do. of the same for 500 1 do. of the same for 450 1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents. A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Greenham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddard, and C. Smith, teller. There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations. As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, that it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but says there had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes. Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber, or to the recovery of the money, or its proportion for any individual recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon. WILLIAM WILKINSON, Cashier of the Bank of Columbia. George-Town July 21.
