Columbian Inn—continued.
ISAIAH CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.

To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers &c.

To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them, that every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.
