

From our late English papers, we copied yesterday, an article, under date, London, September 7. It was termed "A Declaration of the Austrian Ambassador at Berlin, and to other courts."

Captain Blunt, arrived here yesterday from Bordeaux. Our correspondent writes under the date of Sept. 28, says, "The last news from the Boulogne state, that the Emperor has detached one hundred thousand men, towards the Rhine, a continental war seems unavoidable."

FROM HOLLAND. Capt. Parsons, from Amsterdam, commands the intelligence of the debarkation of the French and Dutch troops in the Texel; and of their having marched towards Germany.

A gentleman from Marblehead yesterday, informs of the arrival there of the schooner "Hiram," capt. Hooper, from Bilbao, 33 days; and that the captain saw posted at Bilbao, an order forbidding Spanish privateers to molest American vessels.

It was reported, last evening, that a vessel had arrived at Providence in a short passage from Bordeaux, with news that the French had commenced hostilities against the Austrians, a body of Bonaparte's troops in Italy having taken possession of Venice.

The New-York Board of Health reports, for Wednesday, two cases of fever, and one death—and for Thursday, 23 patients, and 13 convalescent, in the hospital.

FOR THE AMERICAN.

A few days ago I offered to the public some remarks on the subject of two notices, which appeared in the public prints, respecting the Falls Turnpike Road, in addition to which I now beg leave to offer a few more as a supplement.

a distance will be driven to the necessity of seeing a channel some other way more to their interest and to the great injury of Baltimore.—It is an established maxim in the rules of prudence that of two evils we should always prefer the least.
