Or to be exchanged for property on the Eastern Shore [illegible] the following

NO. 1. [illegible] A tract of land [illegible] acres, situate about [illegible] the city of Baltimore, upon [illegible] small tenements: little of the land [illegible], the remainder is well wooded with white and black oak, hickory, &c. A large quantity of ship timber may be had there. [illegible] main stage road to Philadelphia passes through this tract of land, and has at different periods been the property of Col. Thomas [illegible], Robert Morris and George Gale. It [illegible] of Gen. Samuel Smith, Robert Welsh, Englehead Yeiser, Daniel Bowley and Thomas E. Stansbury. This tract of land lies on the navigable water of Back River, where wild fowl are plenty in the season, several valuable fisheries are thereon and springs of excellent water; on the premises are 150,000 good bricks, lately burnt to erect a house, of which the foundation has been prepared.

No. 2. Part of a tract of land called B[illegible]'s Manor, containing about 117 1-2 acres, all in woodland, level, between 6 and 7 miles from the city of Baltimore, adjoining lands of Ebenezar Finley and Thornburg and Miller: The new turnpike road will run near this tract of land; the soil is as good as any in the neighborhood.

No. 3. A three story brick Dwelling House, on Dugan's wharf, with back buildings, complete, a good dry cellar under the whole, and is an eligible situation for business.

No. 4. Bence's Delight, a farm containing about 200 acres, situate in Harford county, about 10 miles from Belle Air, and 20 from Baltimore, adjoining the lands of Parson Davis: On this farm is a good apple and peach orchard, and was late the property of Hackett & Grant.

No. 5. The Ferry House and Ferry, on the west side of Susquehanna River, at Havre-de-Grace, with 4 acres of land thereunto belonging: the house is built with brick, large, commodious and airy, with extensive stables, and all necessary out buildings.

No. 6. The Ferry House and Ferry on the east side of Susquehanna River, where Captain Coffield now resides, with 4 acres of land thereunto belonging: to this property is attached the exclusive right of the ferry over said river for several miles above and below it.

No. 7. 61,000 acres of land, lying in Randolph county, state of Virginia, about 150 miles from Baltimore, and 200 from the city of Washington—This land is of the first quality and very heavily timbered.

No. 8. A lot of ten acres of woodland adjoining the town of Havre-de-Grace, being part of a tract of land called the Convenience.

No. 9. About one acre of land in Havre-de-Grace, bounded in part by the river Susquehanna, whereon is a good fishery.

N. B. The tracts Nos. 1 and 7. will be sold in lots to suit the purchasers, plots of which may be seen at Mr. John Bauldin's Old Town. Nos. 5 and 6 will be sold separate or together to suit those who may be inclined to purchase; but the sale of No. 5, shall not be considered as binding upon me, if the price offered for No. 6, should be inadequate to what I may think the value of it.

The above property will be offered for sale on SATURDAY, the 23d inst. at 11 o'clock, at Thomas Chase's vendue warehouse in Frederick street—The titles to the whole are indisputable; terms will be accommodating and made known on the day of sale.

RICHARD S. THOMAS.

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were

1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dols
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do of the Bank of Potomac, No 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.

A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R Higinbothom, cashier, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller

There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.

As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

WILLIAM WHANN.
Cashier of the Bank of Columbia

LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND.

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS.

THURSDAY, November 7th, 1805.

The House met, present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. Thomas Ayres and Mr John Street, delegates returned for Harford county, Mr. Joshua Cockey a delegate returned for Frederick county, and Mr. John J. Cox a delegate returned for Cecil county appeared, and after qualifying in the mode prescribed by the constitution and form of government, and taking the oath to support the constitution of the United States, took their seats in the house.

The speaker laid before the house a letter from the auditor general, enclosing the Western Shore Treasurer's account, as charged on the auditor's books, from the first of November 1804, to the first of November 1805, and an estimate of the state debt, up to the first instant, which were read, and referred to the committee of claims.

Ordered, that the printer to the state, strike one hundred copies of the said letter and exhibits, and one hundred copies of the letter from the Treasurer of the Eastern Shore, and exhibits therein enclosed, for the use of the members.

The House proceeded to ballot for a committee to inspect and examine the returns of elections, and report whether they have been made agreeable to the constitution and form of government, the ballots being deposited in the ballot box, the gentlemen named to strike retired, and after some time returned and reported, that Messrs Shaaff, Stephen, Lloyd, Montgomery, Waters, Dickenson, and Cox were elected—Ordered, that they have power to send for persons, papers and records.

A memorial of David Barclay and John Lloyd, praying that they may be reimbursed for two thousand two hundred pounds bank stock, allowed by them to Henry Harford, esq. was read and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion, ordered, that Messrs. Stephen, Montgomery, and Lloyd, be a committee to report such rules as are proper to be observed during the session.

On motion, ordered, that Messrs. Chapman, Stephen, Montgomery, Shaaff, and Mercer, be a committee of grievances and courts of justice—Ordered that they have power to send for persons, papers and records.

The speaker laid before the house, a letter from Mr. Benjamin Harwood, trustee, enclosing an account current of interest and principal received to the first day of October 1805; an account current of funded stock to the first day of November 1805, and an abstract of dividends of interest and principal received from the first day of October 1804, to the first day of October 1805, which were read, and referred to the committee of claims. On motion, ordered, that Messrs Montgomery, Chapman, Watts, Stephen, and Smith, be a committee to examine and report what laws expire with the present session.

On motion, leave was given to bring in a bill "entitled an act, to reform the penal laws of this state"—Ordered, that Messrs. Montgomery, Ellicott, Harryman, Champaign, and Shaaff, be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

A petition from John Newton, late a soldier in the Extra regiment of Maryland, stating that he had been in continental service, and praying some allowance for his support, was preferred, read and referred to Messrs. Chapman, Stuart, and Parnham, to consider and report thereon.

The speaker laid before the house, an account of the fees received by the examiner general for the Eastern Shore, which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

A petition from Patrick Lyddan, of Montgomery county, praying an act of insolvency, was preferred, read and referred to Messrs. Watts, Montgomery, Ogden, Stephen, Ellicott, Cockey, and Frazier, to consider and report thereon.

A petition from William Tibbles, of Talbot county, Richard Waters, of William, and Silas C. Bush, of Somerset county, praying acts of insolvency, were preferred, read and referred to the committee appointed on the petition of Patrick Lyddan.

On motion, ordered, that all petitions for acts of insolvency hereafter presented and read, be referred to the committee appointed on petitions of a similar nature.

On motion, ordered, that the printer to the state, be and he is hereby directed to print one hundred copies of every bill, resolution, and report, containing subjects of a general nature, which shall be read by the clerk during the session; also, of all official papers, for the use of the members.

A petition from John J. Purnell, of Worcester county, praying an act of insolvency, was preferred, read and referred to the committee appointed on petitions of a similar nature.

The house adjourned until to-morrow morning, 9 o'clock.

FRIDAY November 8, 1805.

The house met, present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. William Somerville, a Delegate returned for Calvert County, appeared, and after qualifying in the mode prescribed by the Constitution and form of government and taking the oath to support the constitution of the United States, took his seat in the house. A petition from Samuel Hooper of Dorchester County, praying that a law may pass, enabling him to make a good and valid conveyance to Isaac Creighton, in fee of the lands and premises therein mentioned agreeably to his contract with the said Creighten, was preferred, read and referred to Mr. Frazier, Mr. Ward and Mr. Watts, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Shaaff, from the committee of elections and privileges, delivered to the speaker the following report:

The committee of elections and privileges report, that they have inspected the returns of the judges of the elections for the several counties, and for the city of Baltimore, and of the mayor and alderman of the city of Annapolis, and find that by the said returns, the gentlemen who have appeared for the respective counties, before enumerated in the proceedings are elected, declared, and duly returned as members of the house of delegates.

On the second reading of the said report, the question was put, that the house concur therewith—determined in the affirmative.

A petition from John Porter of Cæcil county, praying an act of insolvency, was preferred, read and referred to the committee appointed on petitions of a similar nature.

Mr. Stephen from the committee appointed to report such rules as are proper to be observed during the session, delivered to the speaker their report, which was read. The question was then put, will the house give the said report a second reading, determined in the negative.

The house adjourned until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.
