To the Ladies. MRS. WAITE informs the Ladies of the city of Baltimore and its vicinity, that she has for a number of years practised the art of MIDWIFERY, to the satisfaction of all those who have honored her with a call on that occasion. The particular good success which she has been blessed with inher occupation, not having one patient die or even bed ridden, more than what is customary, prompts her to make known her occupation and place of residence, as she is lately from the country.—Those ladies who would wish to make trial of her skill and knowledge, will please to call at No. 56 1-2, Cumberland Row, where due attendance will be paid. She also ensures to cure scalled heads even of the most stubborn nature.
