PHENOMENON.
A black Woman turned White.
THIS DAY, the 10th of December, and every day this week, will be exhibited at Mr. Andrew Price's, at the corner of Lenmon and East-streets, nearly opposite the Theatre, a woman born BLACK, but since turned perfectly and most beautifully WHITE. She was born on the plantation of Mr. John Finkle, near Caton's lime kilns, within a few miles of Baltimore city. She is now about 26 years of age; has a child perfectly black. Her mother, a black woman, served her time to Mr. S. Vincent of Gay-street, and he has also an own brother of this extraordinary woman.
This most singular woman, who has changed the darkness of an Ethiopian to the most delicate white, has always been habituated to the labor of the corn-field and other hard exercises; she has seldom experienced indisposition, and the remarkable change can only be ascribed to causes which the most learned and ingenious have never been able to ascertain. In Carey's American Museum may be found an elegant communication from the celebrated Doctor Rush, of Philadelphia, wherein that learned and scientific gentleman endeavors to account for the Physical cause of such phenomena, which is the only instance, except the present one, that ever occurred in the United States, which was that of a man in Virginia.
The public may rely upon it that there is no deception in the above. The most respectable evidences can be adduced to prove that the woman was actually born a black Negro, and, except in those parts more immediately exposed to the sun, in her daily labor, has from some unknown cause, actually turned to a pure and beautiful white; and what is still more extraordinary, her wool retains its natural shape and color.
Admission 25 Cents for grown persons, Children half price. She will be shown from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 at night.

Philosophical Exhibition,
WITH sincere thanks to the numerous and respectable assembly, who attended the Exhibition on Tuesday evening last, he laments the disappointment, which both them and himself felt, on account of several events, which rendered the representation so much less interesting, than they had a right to expect, and the subscriber fully intended, and hoped it would have been.
Several of the most interesting experiments, in the first part of the exhibition, were entirely defeated, by an unfortunate accident, which shall hereafter be strictly guarded against.
But it is with extreme regret the subscriber states, that the Optical part of the representation, was in a great measure marred, by the intrusions of persons into the area, between the spectators and the scenes, and which compelled him from the consequent derangement of operation, to omit many of the most interesting pieces. He hopes that after this notice, no such intrusion will hereafter take place.
There were numerous instances in the evening, of persons entering the room without delivering their tickets; such as were admitted in this manner, the subscriber hopes, will be so good as to send back their tickets to the place from whence they received them, or to the subscriber.
In consequence of some necessary alterations and arrangements in the room, the next exhibition will be postponed till WEDNESDAY NEXT, the 12th inst. at half past 6 o'clock, P. M. and will be positively continued in future, on every WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY, at the same hour.
Tickets may be had at Messrs. Carr's and Conrad's stores, and at the office of the Federal Gazette as usual, or down stairs at the Octagon.

Hannah Wiebert,
AN INDENTED GERMAN SERVANT WOMAN, ran away from the subscriber about the first of September last. She is between 18 and 20 years of age; an is about the common size—of somewhat clumsy form, with a little of a bend about the neck and shoulders. She has a down look—has little hair, which is of a light color—her complexion fair, with rather a mixture of sallowness. Her head and face flat, the latter of which, when she is at work, she is in the habit of twisting in a variety of ugly shapes.
She took with her, a dark calico gown, and several cotton striped dresses, and a Leghorn bonnet trimmed with black.
It is supposed she went off with a German, a butcher. She arrived in this country, with her father, from Wittenberg, about a year since—his name is Jacob Wiebert, and he is, by profession, a gardener. Since her flight he left the city, and, no doubt, he is now with her. She could speak some little English, but her father could not. A REWARD of
TEN DOLLARS
Will be paid by the subscriber, if said run-away is secured so as he can get her again.

French Night School.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in the half of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation, the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

VENERAL COMPLAINTS.
AS Dr. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease; in preference to any medicine yet known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time. As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
Dr. V. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines prepared, what a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
N. B. Dr. Warner has removed to the corner of West and Water-streets.
