COMMERCIAL DAILY ADVERTISER

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 1806

Norfellt, policiely furnished us with the following Highly Important note, handed to him by the editor of the Herald, a sew minutes before his sailing :

" Cupt. Gold may insorm his friends, that there is a ship in the Bite of Crany Island in 34 days from Bordeaux, bringing accounts of BONAPARTE's HAV-ING ENTERED VIENNA, on the 14th November; he laid the city under contribution .--- This is certain."

Schooner Echo, from hence with a cargo of dry goods for Jeremie, taken by a French privateer and re-taken by the English brig Pelican, arrived at Port-Royal, Jam. on the 3d ult.

On the 21st December, there were 57 vessels in the port of Savannah: 24 ships, 18 brigs, 13 schooners, and 12 sloops.

It having been stated in the Maryland Gazette, that one of the delegates any colonial produce from your shores, treasurer. from the city of Baltimore-had delivered -u report upon the petition praying an extension of Pratt-street, against the petitioners, and that reference being unwarranted by the report itself, we are desired to publish the proceeding of the committee for the information of those concerned-It is as follows:

The committee to whom the petition of sundry inhabitants, of the city of Baltimore, praying an extension of Prattstreet, was referred,

REPORT— That they have considered the same, and are of opinion, that it would be unwise and improper to act thereon at the present session of the legislature, by reason of the uncertain effect which such of conflicting interests involved therein: for the purpose, therefore, of fully ascertaining these preliminary points, essential to be accurately understood prior to a just legislative decision upon the subject. your committee beg leave to recommend a reference of the said petition to the consideration of the next General Assembly. By order, Extract of a letter from a very respectabl. House in London, dated 6th Nov.

" By this vessel (the British Packet) we send you a pamphlet, which has excited much attention here, entitled " War in disguise, or the frauds of the neutral flags." It is supposed to be written under the auspices, and to speak the statiments of gogovernment: and if so, we think it will shortly be impsssible to send with safety We already doubt the prudence of so doing in the present unsettled state of the great questions in agitation, between your government and ours, for such produce is daily hung up for further proof in our admiralty court, and yesterday the Young Cornelia, from New-York to Amsterdam, was, with great part of her cargo, absolutely condemned, and the Judge said he was astonished that any surprise was excited by the late decisions, as there was nothing new in the principle of them!!

> A very interesting cause was lately determined in the Supreme Court of Schr. Fanny, Hill, Pennsylvania. PATRICK LYON, a very ingenious mechanic of Philad iphih, was, in 1798, committed to, and confined seves Tal months in prison, on suspicion of having been accessary to the roobery of the bank of Pennsylvania. While he was imprisoned, if me mistake not, besides the very great injury he sustained in his business, his wife and children were carried off by the fever. His innocence at length appearing, by the conviction of the perpetrator of the robbery, Mr. Lyon was enlarged; when he instituted an action for damages against the Bank of Pennsylvania. ... The cause came ! on the week before last, was argued; list: several days by the most eminent Lawyers in the state, and a verdict of twelve thousand dollars damage was brought in by the jury.—This verdict is not only a Mr. Lyon's innocence, merit, and suffer- | 1 month; Margaret, Elkins, for Salem in ings; but because the influence of these | 1 1-2 or 2 months; Rising Sun, Lee, of large incorporated companies in Phila- Boston, for Europe; Two Sons, Rice, for delphia too often turns aside the course of | Salem, uncertain; Augusta, Sanford, Baljustice, and even crushes individuals who have the hardihood to contend with them. HE subscriber once more tenders his services to the public; and offers them as a teacher in the following branches-Reasing, writing, arithmetic, English grammar, geography and the Latin and Greek languages. His intention is, for himself, to induct youth into the first principles and unfolding beauties of the Latin and Greek-to take them by the hand, and lead them thro' the devious paths of ancient literature-Sometimes, it is acknowledged, rugged, but certainly always instructive, if not pleasant ... Having trodden these paths himself, he can with the more propriety, recommend them to others .- Such talents as he possesses, shall be entirely devoted to the instruction of those committed to his charge. Aware that to dock. seek is not always to find-to ask is not uniformly to receive - and to receive is not undeviatingly to be satisfied—he shall bring to his own aid, and to his pupils instruction, whatever the occasion may suggest-All who are acquainted with the operations of the human mind, will know that, what came, as it were, by intuition yesterday, may not, when saught f r, be found to-day; and, without callin after, may impose itself upon the recollection tomorrowbut whatever may be in store, shall be freely dealt out to candidates for knowledge.

Time of commencement, Monday the 21st instant-Terms 10 dollars per quarter-Place shall be named when a suitable situatiou can be procured.
