3 ENERGAL COMPEAINTS. 5 Dr. WARNER's practice has been very I artensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the vehereal discase, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore., He has rem wed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, r.moved in the sir resupossible space of time. As there are persons from various causes cannot personably apply, it may be ne cessary to inform them, they may be releived from a description of their complaint

Dr.- W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared, that a safe, effectual and, expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed to the corner Calvert and Bank-streetr.

NINDENTED GERMAN SERVANT LI WOMAN, ran-away from the subscriber about the first of September last. She is between 18 and 20 years of age; and is about the common size—of somewhat clumsy form, with a little of a bend about the neck and shoulders. She has a down look-has litte hair, which is of a light color-her complexion fair, with rather a mixture of salowness. Her head and face flat, the latter of which, when she is at work, she is in the habit of twisting in a variety of ugly shapes.

Sie took with her, a dark calico gown, and several entton striped dresses, and a Leghorn bonnet triva'd with black.

It is supposed she went off with a German, a butcher. She arrived in this country, with her father, from Wirtemburg about a year since—his name is Jacob Wiebert, and he is, by profession, a gardener. Since her flight he left the city, and, no doubt, he is now with her. She could speak some little English, but her father could DOL A REWARD OF · Academy.

HE subscriber once more tenders his ser-I vices to the public; and offers them as a teacher in the following branches-Reading, writing, arithmetic, English grammar, geography and the Latin and Greek languages. His intention is, for himself, to induct youth into the first principles and unfolding beauties of the Latin and Greek-to take them by the hand, and lead them thro' the devious paths of ancient literature-Sometimes, it is acknowledged, rugged, but certainly always instructive, if not pleasant.-Having trodden these paths himself, he can with the more propriety, recommend them to others.—Such talents as he possesses, shall be entirely devoted to the instruction of those committed to his charge. Aware that to seek is not always to find-to ask is not uniformly to receive—and to receive is not undeown aid, and to his pupils instruction, whatever the occasion may suggest-All who are acquainted with the operations of the human mind, will know that, what came, as it were, by intuition yesterday, may not, when saught for, be found to-day; and, without calling after, may mpose it self upon the accollection tomorrowbut whatever may be in store, shall be freely dealt out to candidates for knowledge.
