The Widow Paul
HAS removed from her late dwelling in Harrison street to Lewis Lane, three doors above Mr. Bryden's Fountain Inn, where she and her daughters will continue to make and REPAIR UMBRELLAS, and to carry on the MILLINERY BUSINESS in its various branches. She only begs, the continuance

VENEREAL COMPLAINTS.
AS DR. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time. As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared, that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
N. B. Dr. Warner has removed to the corner Calvert and Bank-streets.

Hannah Wiebert,
A NINTENDED GERMAN SERVANT WOMAN, ran-away from the subscriber about the first of September last. She is between 18 and 20 years of age; and is about the common size—of somewhat clumsy form, with a little of a bend about the neck and shoulder. She has a down look—has little hair, which is of a light color—her complexion fair, with rather a mixture of salowness. Her head and face flat, the latter of which, when she is at work, she is in the habit of twisting in a variety of ugly shapes.
She took with her, a dark calico gown, and several cotton striped dresses, and a Leghorn bonnet trimmed with black.
It is supposed she went off with a German, a butcher. She arrived in this country, with her father, from Wirtemberg about a year since—his name is Jacob Wiebert, and he is, by profession, a gardener. Since her flight he left the city, and, no doubt, he is now with her. She could speak some little English, but her father could not. A REWARD.

TEN DOLLARS
Will be paid by the subscriber, if said run-away is secured so as he can get her again.

French Night School.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. & Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those resisting youths who will favor me with their engagement to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies. By the 15th of March.

Academy.
THE subscriber once more tenders his services to the public; and offers them as a teacher in the following branches—Reading, writing, arithmetic, English grammar, geography and the Latin and Greek languages. His intention is, for himself, to induct youth into the first principles and unfolding beauties of the Latin and Greek—to take them by the hand, and lead them thro' the devious paths of ancient literature—Sometimes, it is acknowledged, rugged, but certainly always instructive, if not pleasant.—Having trodden these paths himself, he can with the more propriety, recommend them to others.—Such talents as he possesses, shall be entirely devoted to the instruction of those committed to his charge. Aware that to seek is not always to find—to ask is not uniformly to receive—and to receive is not unde-viatingly to be satisfied—he shall bring to his own aid, and to his pupils instruction; whatever the occasion may suggest.—All who are acquainted with the operations of the human mind, will know that, what came, as it were, by intuition yesterday, may not, when sought for,
be found to-day; and, without calling after, may impose itself upon the recollection tomorrow—but whatever may be in store, shall be freely dealt out to candidates for knowledge.
Time of commencement, Monday the 21st instant—Terms 10 dollars per quarter—Place shall be named when a suitable situation can be procured.
