Richmond, Va. October, 1865.
Subscriptions received at the Office of the Advertiser.

TO BE SEEN
Two Dromedaries,
FROM ARABIA.
THESE are the first of their species ever imported into this country. The value of them is such, that the Arabian, possessed of his Dromedary, has nothing either to want or to fear. They will travel at the rate of a hundred miles in a day, 5 or 6 days together, without either eating or drinking. They are part like the horse, cow, sheep, and the rabbit and are the most docile animal in the world. They kneel down, take on their load, and wait the pleasure of their keeper to rise. They arrive at their full growth at 6 years old, which is about 20 hands high, and live to the age of 40 or 50 years. The oldest of the above is forty years, and the youngest 17 months.
Where astonishing Animals are to be seen at No. 36, opposite the lower Marsh-market. It is to be hoped, the Ladies and Gentlemen of Baltimore will not lose this favorable opportunity which may be the only one (at least for many years) of viewing these surprising animals, so much spoken of by naturalists and historians.
Admission 25 cents, children half price.
January 16

To the Voters—
Of the City and County of Baltimore.
GENTLEMEN,
BEING solicited by many friends, both in the city and county, to offer myself a candidate for the Office of SHERIFF. I have taken the liberty of soliciting your suffrages at the ensuing election, as I conceive myself qualified from long experience as assistant to the present and two preceding sheriffs to discharge the important duties attached to that office.—My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation, I am ambitious to possess; but if correctness, diligence, and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites.—I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against the Public's humble servant,
JOHN HUNTER.

To Let,
THAT highly cultivated GARDEN, with dwelling and out houses, lately occupied by Mr. Alex. Latuly, situated near the Spring Gardens, and opposite the Widow Dorsey's place, in Charles street. From the many advantages the place has, it will be worthy the attention of any person wishing to rent a Garden, to make speedy application—the most distant part of the garden can be watered by means of spouts. It will be let for ONE, TWO or THREE years as may best suit the applicants. For terms apply to Henry Warner, at George Warner's, on the Alexandria road, or at the Bookstore of Warner and Hanna, corner of Market and Gay streets.
January 16

A single man of industry, sobriety and integrity, with a competent knowledge of the Retail Grocery Business, will hear of an eligible situation, as a partner or otherwise, by applying to the printer. None need apply but such as can produce unquestionable vouchers as to the above qualities. A small capital though not indispensable would be moer agreeable.
January 17

Academy.
THE subscriber once more tenders his services to the public; and offers them as a teacher in the following branches—Reading, writing, arithmetic, English grammar, geography and the Latin and Greek languages. His intention is, for himself, to induct youth into the first principles and unfolding beauties of the Latin and Greek—to take them by the hand, and lead them thro' the devious paths of ancient literature—Sometimes, it is acknowledged, rugged, but certainly always instructive. If not pleasant—Having trodden these paths himself, he can with the more propriety, recommend them to others.—Such talents as he possesses, shall be entirely devoted to the instruction of those committed to his charge. Award that to seek is not always to find—to ask is not uniformly to be satisfied—he shall bring to his own aid, and to his pupils' instruction, whatever the occasion may suggest.—All who are acquainted with the operations of the human mind, will know that, what came, as it were, by intuition yesterday, may not, when sought for, be found to-day, and, without calling after, may suppose it well upon the recollection tomorrow—but whatever may be in store, shall be freely dealt out to candidates for knowledge.
Time of commencement, Monday, the 21st instant.—Terms 10 dollars per quarter. Place shall be named when a suitable situation can be procured.
