PETER GOULD, Adm'rs. THOS. C. JENKINS, 2aw6w January 2

The Widow Paul

HAS Removed from her late dwelling in Harrison-street to LIGHT-LANE, three doors above Mr. Bryden's Fountain Inn, where she and her daughters will continue to make and REPAIR UMBRELLAS, and to carry on the MILLINERY BUSINESS in its various branches. She only begs, the continuance of that kind patronage of a generous public, which she has already received, and hopes to shew her gratitude by the attention and dispatch to all orders committed to her care.

Oiled Silk Hat-Covers and Bathing Caps are constantly kept on sale. September 18

VENEREAL COMPLAINTS.

AS DR. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America.

Hannah Wichert,

AN INDENTED GERMAN SERVANT WOMAN, ran-away from the subscriber about the first of September last. She is between 18 and 20 years of age; and is about the common size—of somewhat clumsy form, with a little of a bend about the neck and shoulders. She has a down look—has little hair, which is of a light color—her complexion fair, with rather a mixture of salowness. Her head and face flat, the latter of which, when she is at work, she is in the habit of twisting in a variety of ugly shapes.

It is supposed she went off with a German, a butcher, from Wirtemberg about a year since—his name is Jacob Wichert, and he is, by profession, a gardener. Since her flight he left the city, and, no doubt, he is now with her. She could speak some little English; but her father could not. A REWARD OF TEN DOLLARS Will be paid by the subscriber, if said run-away is secured so as he can get her again.

Nov. 25 d

French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT-SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation of the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

JOSEPH FAILOTTEA, N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply. September 24

Benjamin Rouse,

BOOT-MAKER, RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and customers, that he has commenced business at No. 15, Water-street; where he has on hand, an assortment of FASHIONABLE BOOTS. Particular attention will be paid to measure work; also, all orders for exportation will be executed with dispatch, as above.

January 3 d12t

The situation is extremely convenient for a merchant, who has business to attend at either or both places; there is a large, well inclosed garden; a lot of ground highly cultivated, stable, carriage-house, &c. a pump in the yard well supplied with most excellent water, and no place in the environs of Baltimore more healthy. For terms apply to HUGH THOMPSON. December 23 d

Mrs. Allen's Poems

ARE in the press, and it is expected, will be ready for delivery in the course of next month; some later Poems have been added to the collection. Unforeseen circumstances have delayed the publication consequently longer than was at first expected, by waiting for the settlement of a printer in the neighborhood of the author, which has afforded a more favorable opportunity of correcting the sheets, than could otherwise have been had; which delay it is hoped, the subscribers and the public will excuse.—Those who wish for copies will please to leave their names, with the number of copies wanted, with Messrs. WM. WILSON & SONS, Market-street, or MR. DANIEL RUFF, Printer, Abington, Harford county, in the course of the present month, as there will be but a few more books bound than will be necessary to supply the subscribers. January 8 2aw4t
