 From the above Scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months alter, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 10000 dollars to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.
 Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral Lottery will be received in payment.
 Prizes in the Cathedral and Second Presbyterian Lotteries, will be taken in payment for Tickets.

Fifty Dollars Reward.
 RAVE AWAY from the subscriber, about the 20th of November last, an apprentice to the Cabinet-Making business, named JAMES GRIFFIN. He is about 18 years of age, 5 feet 4 inches high, of stout make, with sandy colored hair, and much freckled. His clothing cannot be particularly described, but his mode of dressing was plain and tidy; and as he was in possession of a brown coating watch coat, it is probably he wears that to accommodate himself to the season. As, for some time past, he has expressed a desire of visiting Cincinnati, in the Western country, to follow certain of his friends who have lately migrated from hence; to said quarter, if he thought highly probable he has bent his course that way. The above reward will be paid, if taken out of the state; and if within the state, thirty dollars will be paid. And in both cases, all reasonable charges.

The Widow Paul
 HAS removed from her late dwelling in Harrison-street to LIGHT-LANE, three doors above Mr. Bruden's Fountain Inn, where she and her daughters will continue to make and REPAIR UMBRELLAS, and to carry on the MILLINERY BUSINESS in its various branches. She only begs, the continuance of that kind patronage of a generous public, which she has already received, and hopes to show her gratitude by the attention and dispatch to all orders committed to her care.
 Oiled Silk Hat-Covers and Dishing Caps are constantly kept on sale.

VENEREAL COMPLAINTS.
 A S Dr. WARNER's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
 Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared, that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
 N. B. Dr. Warner has removed to the corner Calvert and Bank-streets.

Hannah Wiebert,
 A NINNENTED GERMAN SERVANT WOMAN, ran-away from the subscriber about the first of September last. She is between 18 and 20 years of age; and is about the common size—of somewhat clumsy form, with a little of a bend about the neck and shoulders. She has a down look—has little hair, which is of a light color—her complexion fair, with rather a mixture of salowness. Her head and face flat, the latter of which, when she is at work, she is in the habit of twisting in a variety of ugly shapes.
 She took with her, a dark calico gown, and several cotton striped dresses, and a Leghorn bonnet trim'd with black.
 It is supposed she went off with a German, a butcher. She arrived in this country, with her father, from Wirtemberg about a year since—his name is Jacob Wiebert, and he is, by profession, a gardener. Since her flight he left the city, and, no doubt, he is now with her. She could speak some little English, but her father could not. A REWARD OF
TEN DOLLARS
 Will be paid by the subscriber, if said run-away is secured so as he can get her again.

French Night School.
 NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in half of my pupils—I have no need; it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent Judge; I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

Mrs. Allen's Poems
 ARE in the press, and it is expected, will be ready for delivery in the course of next month; some later Poems have been added to the collection. Unforeseen circumstances have delayed the publication consequently longer than was at first expected, by waiting for the settlement of a printer in the neighborhood of the author, which has afforded a more favorable opportunity of correcting the sheets, than could otherwise have been had; which delay it is hoped, the subscribers and the public will excuse.—Those who wish for copies will please to leave their names, with the number of copies wanted, with Messrs. Wm. WILSON & SONS, Market street, or Mr. DANIEL RUFF, Printer, Abington, Harford county, in the course of the present month, as there will be but a few more books bound than will be necessary to supply the subscribers.
