A Stray Negro Child

CAME to the House, No. 3, second door from the corner of Granby and Great George-street, on Tuesday last, a smart likely Negro Girl, apparently between 6 and 7 years of age; she calls herself SUSAN, and says she belongs to a Mrs. Johnson in Howard-street. She has been sent by an intelligent hand to find her house, but to no purpose, she appears to be an artful little hussey, and no means willing to leave her present residence. Whoever has lost a little Negro Girl, it is expected they will call and identify her, pay charges and take her away.
January 27

January 3

Literary and Commercial SEMINARY,

Second door from the north west corner of North and Lexington-streets,
FOR BOYS BETWEEN THE AGES OF SEVEN AND TWELVE YEARS.
THE superior pleasure derived from unfolding the infant mind; the flexibility of early youth; the force of first principles and habits; and the difficulty of correcting more advanced age, are the reasons which have induced the subscriber, to wish to confine his labors to so young a part of the community.
The advantages resulting from associating together, boys of nearly the same age, must, he conceives, be obvious to every one: thereby any number may be more effectually taught; greater emulation will be produced, and their minds rendered less liable to be corrupted.
The subscriber who has taught in some of the first academies in Great Britain, has, for the last twelve months, been engaged in a respectable female academy in this city; where, although his labors have been necessarily confined, yet he flatters himself, sufficient has been done to convince the public of his ability, for the proposed undertaking.
Parents desirous that their sons should complete their education at college, will here have an opportunity of having them early qualified for that purpose; as in this institution will be taught, in addition to other branches, the Latin and the elements of the Greek language, together with so much of Mathematical Science, as may be adapted to their tender capacities; but especially, care will be taken to make the youth read, write and speak the mother tongue with propriety, elegance and correctness.
A proper person will be engaged to teach the French language.
To illustrate the sciences of Geography and Astronomy, an elegant pair of Globes are procured, to which will be added Maps, Charts and appropriate Diagrams.
In order to make an amusement, rather than a toil of teaching, and to obviate the inconvenience attending crowded academies, in which a great part of the business must devolve on persons having only a secondary interest, it is determined that the number of pupils shall on no account whatever exceed twenty-five.
Particulars may be known, by applying at Messrs. Sower & Cole's Book-store, No. 3, Light-street, next door to the Coffee-house; Mrs. Bacon's academy, Pratt-street; or at No. 48, South Charles-street.
In consequence of the encouragement which my proposals have already met with—I have determined to commence on MONDAY, the 3d of February, with such pupils as have already been entered; and such others as may come forward previously to the day.
January 21

Wanted,

A MIDDLE aged WOMAN, completely qualified for a House-keeper, in a large family; to such a one that can bring proper testimonials of good character, a liberal salary will be given. For further particulars enquire at this office.
January 24

A Large Scow

WAS picked up a drift on Carroll's Island, 44 feet long and about 11 feet broad. The owner may have her again, on proving property and paying charges, by applying to Captain Henry Shoute, on said Island.
January 23

Sale by Auction.

By virtue of an order from the Orphan's court of Baltimore county, will be disposed of at public sale, on WEDNESDAY the 29th inst. at the late residence of Richard Cole, deceased, about 3 miles from Baltimore, on the Harford road, ALL the personal estate of the said deceased, consisting of household and kitchen furniture, Cows, Horses, Hogs, Farming utensils, &c. Terms are cash—sale to commence at 10 o'clock.

Most of the above pieces have been performed on the American stage, but have not been published; a few of them have neither been performed nor published; but the whole will be carefully corrected and revised, and many of them will be newly rewritten. Age and experience, it is presumed, will enable the author to correct many of the errors and inaccuracies in his earlier productions.
Independent of any merit these plays may possess, the publisher hopes that some interest will be excited in the American public, in pro-serving, in a respectable form, the works of the first native of the United States who has devoted his time and talents to dramatic composition.
Subscriptions are left at Messrs. M'Chesnel and John Comstock's, where may be seen some of the licenses granted for the work, with other specimens.
MISS MARY PALMER,
57, January 24
