A Valuable Periodical Work!

MONTHLY ANTHOLOGY; and BOSTON REVIEW. Omnes undique flosculos carpem atque delibem.

IT seems conceded that a repository for correct notices of all American publications, for just criticism, for the lucubrations of men of learning and taste, and indeed for whatever is propitious to the arts and sciences, or to individual and national improvement, deserves and ought to experience success.

The Monthly Anthology, and Boston Review has been judiciously devoted to these objects, we infer from its increasing patronage, and from the approbation it has received from many of our wisest and best citizens, who have found it to contain instructive and amusing speculations and interesting narratives. The Review we wish to be the history of the contemporary literature of our country, giving correct and impartial reviews of all American works, and notices of foreign works re-published in the United States; and, to give a more permanent value to the work, we intend to add eight additional pages to the succeeding numbers, which we shall devote to the publication of American state papers, and generally of authenticated documents, having for their objects the history, biography, &c. of our country, to be published as an appendix to the Anthology, paged by itself, in order that subscribers may, if they please, bind it as a separate volume.

The above work is published every month in Boston, Massachusetts, by a society of gentlemen. The price is four dollars per annum, in advance. Subscriptions will be received at ANDERSON & JEFFERIS, No. 66, Baltimore-street, where those who are desirous of enclosing a good sum for an extensive work, are invited to call.

Runaway Negro.

WAS committed to the goal of Washington county, in Maryland, on the 6th inst. as a runaway, Negro SALLY, about twenty years old, stout and likely, and a pleasant countenance; she says she got away from her master, who was taking her and several other slaves to the westward or southward, who had purchased her with others from a certain John Smith, of Stafford county, in the state of Virginia, but does not know (or will not tell) her master's name; she has on a striped cotton jacket or short gown, and Joan spinning petticoat, and appears to be far gone in pregnancy. The owner is desired to release her, or she will be sold for good and other fees, agreeably to law. N. ROCHESTER, Sheriff of Washington County. Hagers-Town, Feb. 11, (Feb. 24.) 1aw4t

William Merryman

WE, the subscribers, of the city of Baltimore, do hereby certify, that Mr. William Merryman has acted towards us, as his creditors, in an honorable and upright manner—and has settled with us, we believe, to the utmost of his ability, and much to our satisfaction.

WE are convinced his failure in business proceeded not from his own misconduct, but from those misfortunes incident to trade. And further, after the insolvent act was passed in his favor, he shewed no disposition to use it to our injury, but made us, his creditors, such liberal propositions as to convince us of his correct intentions towards us.

VENERABLE COMPLAINTS.

AS DR. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vented or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint. Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicines so prepared, that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

Mrs. Elizabeth Reeves

INFORMS her friends, and the public at large, that she has moved to the corner of Gay and East-streets, into that large and convenient white house, opposite to General Ridgely's, where she has opened a BOARDING HOUSE, and solicits the public patronage.—The house is convenient for the business she proposes to follow, and is in a dry and healthy situation, and to those advantages she will take Boarders upon moderate terms, and every favour thankfully acknowledged.
