Longitudes at Sea,

FOUND, if not exactly, at farthest, within five miles, by a process, which, after ten days' instruction, may be performed, in about fifteen minutes.
The following are amongst the methods published in London, for the above purpose, since the beginning of the present century:—1st. A Lunar Chart, the only one in this city. 2d. A projection of two lines only. 3d. Trigonometrical calculations. 4th. A variety of formulae, arranged by alphabetical order, and marginal references to rules.
Those who are desirous of becoming acquainted with the above methods, or any one in particular, will please to apply at Mr. Bige's, No. 48, Chicks-street.—1st. The price, including navigation, double altitudes, and the use of the sextant; Gould's patent log, and Serson's speculum, is ten dollars by the branch, one half in advance. No entrance. On the same terms will also be taught, measurement of superficies, solids, and lands (the last, as now used in the survey, and by the surveyor-general of Pennsylvania); also gauging, dialling, geography, &c. by a graduate of Harvard-University, for many years employed by government as mathematician in the navy, and now as tutor in a respectable academy in Pratt-street.
A Translator's office, (for the English and French languages) is opened at the same place, and every species of writing in both dialects, formed or corrected, in a style fit for publication.

William Merryman
Informs his friends and the voters of the city, and county at large,
THAT he continues to solicit their patronage for the office of SHERIFF, at the ensuing election.
WE, the subscribers, of the city of Baltimore, do hereby certify, that Mr. William Merryman has acted towards us, as his creditors, in an honorable and upright manner; and has settled with us, we believe, to the utmost of his ability, and much to our satisfaction.
We are convinced his failure in business proceeded not from his own misconduct, but from those misfortunes incident to trade.
And further, after the insolvent act was passed in his favor, he showed no disposition to use it to our injury, but made us, his creditors, such liberal propositions, and convinced us of his correct intentions towards us.
Sent Hoffman & Son, York Water-works, Late Terman & Co., Carey Hoffman, Cor. of Bond Congress, Calhoun & Larmon, S. G. Lewis Watered, Philip R. L. Frier, Walter Jenkins, John Fair, Chalmers, junr, for, W. Jackson & Co., John Chalmers and Kenon & Brown, Feb. 11.
