Supplement to the American.

Anterican,

Commercial Daily Advertiser

PRINTRU AND PUBLISHED BY WILLIAM PECHIN, (PRINTER OF THE LAWS OF THE UNION.) 31, SOUTH GAY-STREET, -NRARTHE CUSTOM HOUSE, BALTIMORE.

Daily paper $7 and Country paper 5 per ann. TAll advertisements appear in both papers.

SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 1806

forms its greatest proportion :-- our rich by privateeringceeds of to-morrow's mail.

given.

ROUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. DEBATE On MR. GRECC'S RESOLUTION.

MR. J. RANDOLPH'S SPEECH

[CONCLUDED.] count upon our divisions. How! What there the burthen falls on the home price. there ends the questions If Georgia shall Grenville, First Lord of the Treasury; set off this morning to take possession of does she know of them? Can they ever I appeal to the experience of the last war (from whatever cause) so completely monopoexpect greater unanimity than prevailed ---which has been so often cited. What, an export duty of three per cent. upon it, be- chequer; Mr. Fox, Secretary of State put in sequestration till peace takes place and of the last Presidential election—No. sir. then was the price of produce and of the last Presidential election—No. sir. at the last Presidential election—No, sir, then, was the price of produce, and of sides taxing its cultivators, in every other shape, for the Foreign Department; Earl Spen- between France and England. Mr. En-'tis the gentieman's own conscience that broad cloth? squeaks. But if she cannot calculate up- But you are told England will not make Pennsylvania likely to rival her and take away partment; Mr. Windham, Secretary, at on of this sequestration. on your divisions, at least sine may reckon war—she has her hands full—Holland upon your pusilanimity. She may well des-calculated in the same way in 1781:—

upon your pusilanimity. She may well des-calculated in the same way in 1781:—

pise the resentment that cannot be excited how did it turn out? You stand now in to honorable battle on its own ground—the the place of Holland, then—without the place of Holland, then—without the control of the British treaty—of the British treaty—of the Ordnance; Earl Fitz-William, Prince Royal of Bavaria has also arrived trembled in the days of the British treaty—of the Ordnance; Earl Fitz-William, Prince Royal of Bavaria has also arrived trembled in the days of the British treaty—of the British treaty—of the Ordnance; Earl Fitz-William, Prince Royal of Bavaria has also arrived trembled in the days of the British treaty—of the Briti to honorable battle on its own ground—the the place of Holland, then—without cowards (I presume) in the reign of terror? Is President of the Council; Lord Ellenbo- at this city. mere effusion of mercantile cupidity. her navy, unaided by the preponderating this true? Hunt up the journals; let our ac- rough, to have a vote without functions. Gentlemen talk of repealing the British fleets of France and Spain—to say Treaty. The gentleman from Pennsylvania should have thought of that, before vania should have thought of carry it into effect. And great maratime states have been forced by the states have been forced by t he voted to carry it into effect. And great maratime states have been forced We have no wish to see another Actium, or ing as about to take place. what is all this for? A point which G. to drop them? to meet G. Britain on the Pharsalia, or the lieutenants of a modern The Duke of York, commander in placed in the hands of the King of Prussia Britain will not abandon to Russia, you ocean and drive her off its face. If you Alexander playing at piquet, or all-fours, for Chief with a council; Mr. Sheridan, till the definitive peace. expect her to yield to you—Russia indis- are so far gone as this, every capital meaputably the second power of continental sure of your policy has hitherto been Europe—with half a million of hardy wrong. You should have nurtured the Europe—with half a million of hardy wrong. You should have nurtured the that Egypt is her object, or the coast of Bar. Minto, President of the Board of Control; place he published the following troops—with sixty sail of the line—thirty old, and devised new systems of taxation bary, and, at the worst, we shall be the last Lord Temple and Mr. H. Addington, PROCLAMATION TO THE ARMY. millions of subjects—a territory more ex- —have cherished your navy—Begin this devoured. We are enamoured with neither Pay-Masters General; Lord St. John and rights on land—observe her conduct in my real object was to secure limits, which regard to the Franconian estates of the she formally acknowledged at the pease of bina of Parson of the she formally acknowledged at the pease of bina of Parson of the she formally acknowledged at the pease of But when I behold the affairs of this nation in land. She formally acknowledged at the pease of But when I behold the affairs of this nation in land. petty powers—of the elector of Baden or of the Swiss:—I speak of a first rate momarchy of Europe, and at a moment too when its neutrality was the object of all of the French towards hostility will always be an even and repining people—whose language, manners and religion all incline them to the invader—a dissatisfied people who despise the miserable governor you have despise the miserable governor you have set over them—whose honest prejudices set over them—whose honest prejudices and that I shall be set over them—whose honest prejudices and the duty of the President to the province and the duty of the President to the province and the duty of the President to the province and the duty of the President to the province and the funite States deciares it to be stitution of the United States deciares it to be the province and the duty of the President to the province and the funite States deciares it to be stitution of the United States deciares it to be the province and the duty of the President to the province and the duty of the President to the province and the funite States deciares it to be the province and the duty of the President to the province and the funite States deciares it to be stitution of the United States deciares it to be the province and the duty of the President to the province and the funite States deciares it to be the province and the duty of the President to the province and the duty of the President to the province and the duty of the President to the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of the President to be the province and the duty of th bious source—from a native American, to the character of the inhabitants of that as to receive it from him. But do what you as to receive it from him. But do what you as to receive it from him. But do what you as to receive it from him. But do what you as to receive it from him. But do what you as to receive it from him. But do what you as to receive it from him. But do what you as to receive it from him. But do what you as moved by the Earl of Essex, and selection to the executive of the character of the inhabitants of the most delight.

Impecile government—Vous have official rely for support of their measure. Who esta you may be surprised that there has detestable to bear exposure in naked worthy of knowing what, there is too much reabeen so little collision. Sir, to the other words; by a judicious choice of epithets son to believe, has been communicated to the belligerent nations of Europe your navi- to draw the attention from the lunking priviledged spice of foreign governments ! / !

of life, which custom has rendered almost head of the republicas harty. with some degree of spirit towards those chief of a dominant faction. who are dependent upon you as carriers, magic of words !- Heid, chief. do you reckon to brow-beat a jealous ri- can party, dominant faction.

view in publishing it is principally to This is stuff, sir, for the nursery-Rerelieve our columns of Monday from a member that your products are bulkypart of the too weighty pressure of mat- as has been stated----that they require ter which it must otherwise have borne a vast tonnage to transport them abroad--and to leave them open for the pro- and that but two nations possess that ton-It will be discovered, that the American market:---- What is the result? The of the morning contained the principal manufactures of England which (to use a armies, you will command by writ-with any foreign nation with money. I will not the trial of the duke d'Enghein. mean war-say so, and prepare for it- I will send her no money, sir, on any pre- which you owe this persecution. I might offea Mr. Windham. look on the other side-behold the re- text whatsoever, much less on pretence another opology for these undigested, desultospect in which France holds neutral of buying Labrador, or Botany Bay, when ry remarks, my never having seen the treasury King's household. king of Prussia :- I say nothing of the 1783. I go further-I would (if any stead of being where I hoped, and the people will take the oath. We sincerely con- of our country, and the interests of our others nearest to the heart of the French towards hostifity will always be an em- ment would step forward and say, "such is our arrived from Berlin. emperor. If you make him monarch of bargo. In six months all your mercan-plan-such is our opinion, and such are our New Arrangements concerning the Adthe ocean, you may bid adieu to it forever. tile megrims would vanish. As to us, reasons in support of it." I would meet it fair-indispensible. And if you cannot act seems 'tis reproachful to be deemed the mistake this diplomatic puppet for an automa-No, sir-For renegadoes; to day Ame- are some other fine manufactures on the think; not to say such things are proper bewhen you will, the property, now cover- of linens, the article we can best dispense done; and wherefore !--- and all will be right. ed by the American, will then pass un- with. A few individuals, sir, may have We turnish our readers with a supple- der the Danish, or some other neutral a coat of Louviers cloth, or a service of ment this day; but not entirely an ac- flag. Gentlemen say that one English Seve China-but there is too little, and count of the importance of its contents, ship is worth three of ours: we shall that little too dear, to firmish the nation. as may be well conceived, when the therefore have the advantage in privateer. You must depend on the fur trade in continuance of Mr. Randolph's speech ing-Did they ever know a nation get earnest, and wear buffaloe hides and bear tend to say, that a particular foreign policy is of 26 days from Bordeaux, and has favor-Double freight, charges and commission commerce. Great Britain tremblingly alive to worthy of notice. -Who receives the profit? The carrier her manufacturing interests and carrying trade, ----Who pays it? The consumer. All would have felt to the heart any measure calcuyour produce that finds its way to would have yielded then to her fears and her England must bear the same accumulated jealousy alone. What is the case now. She Gentlemen say that Great Britain will harges-with this difference: -that lays an export duty on her manufactures, and that human or infernal ingenuity can devise, is cer, Secretary of State for the Home De- gersleben is to have the supreme directi-

You may take your leave sir, of naviga- although it would cut deep, we can stand ly, would openly oppose or pledge myself to and basest passions alike take part against able-certainly not willing, unless provok- done it ! I know sir, that we may say and do information that the town and its depen- and what are they? A simple, agricultural upon him. He stands at the helm, and must house of Commons by Lord Francis Spencer, dencies are utterly defenceless and unte- people, accustomed to travel, in peace, to guide the resselof state. You give him money seconded by Mr. Ainslie. government would do something to put Who takes it from us? Another people those means rest with him. Let not the mass arms, and ammunition.

You may furnish means, the application of salt petre, those who attack our honor, or suffer the place in a state of security, alone has devoted to manufactures—our sole source those means rest with him. Let not the mass the place in a state of security, alone has devoted to manufactures—our sole source ter and mate go below when the ship is in diskept the American portion of that com- of supply. I have seen some stuff in the tress, and throw the responsibility upon the cil directing that the Quarantine lake upon all the eternal enemy of the Continent. munity, quiet. You have held that post, news-papers about manufactures in Sax- cook and the cabin-boy. I sald so when your ships, persons, goods and merchandizes which you now hold it by the tenure of the naval ony, and about a man who is no longer doors were shut a I scorn to say less now that may arrive in any of the ports of this kingdom, predominance of England, and yet you are the chief of a dominant faction. The please. They may put an insignificant individlor a British naval war.

There are now but two great commermortal author of the letters of Curious has There are now but two great commer- mortal author of the letters of Curtius; has alter my course. I blush with indignation at off. cial fixtions-Great Britain is one-we remarked the proneness of cunning peo- the misrepresentations which have gone forth are the other. When you consider the ple to wrap up and disguise in well se- in the public prints of our proceedings, public Emperor and Empress returned on Sunmany points of contact between our inter- lected phrases doctrines too-deformed & and private. Are the people of the United gation is a convenience, I might say, a principle beneath, and perpetuate delusi- think our citizens just as well entitled to know necessary. If you do not carry for them on.—But a little while ago, and any man bearled your Provident to his face insulant the public treasury in the room of Marthey must starve at least for the luxuries might be proud to be considered as the bearded your President to his face, insulted Now, it diction, and outraged all decency. Do you Mark the | ton ! He has orders for all he does Take his Republi- instructions from his pocket to morrow, they are signed "Charles Maurice Talleyrand But as to Let the nation know what they have to depend val, who, the moment she lets slip the these Saxon manufactures. What be- upon. Be true to them, and (trust me) they dogs of war, sweeps you, at a blow, from came of their Dresden China? Why the will prove true to themselves and to you. The the ocean. And, cui bono? for whose be- Prussian bayonets have broken all the people are honest; now at home at their ploughs, gion, which had set off to embark for Engnesit ?-The planter. Nothing like it :- pots, and you are content with Worces- not dreaming of what you are about. But the The fair, honest real American merchan? tershire or Staffordshire ware. There spirit of enquiry, that has too long slept, will be, must be awakened. Let them begin to rican-to-morrow, Danes. Go to war continent, but no supply; except perhaps cause they have been done, but what has been

NEW-YORK, March 20.

POSTSCRIPT.

Last evening captain Main, of the ship in the villages round Hamlen. Arcturus, came up from the Hook in a pilot-boat, where he left his ship wind-Can any man, who understands Europe, pre- bound. He has had a very short passage now right; because it would have been expedient twenty, or even ten years ago, without ed the editors of the New-York Gazette abandoning all regard for common sense! Sir, with Paris papers to the 16th of Eebruary. it is the statesman's province to be guided by They contain London news several days nage -- Take these carriers out of the circumstances, to anticipate, to foresee them, later than before received, which enables —to give them a course and a direction,—to mould them to his purpose. It is the business nistration of England, and many other of a compting house clerk, to peer into the outlines of the foreign matter now finishing touch of the gentlemen's rheto-day book and ledger, to see no farther than the given.

or a compung nouse ciera, to peer mouth articles of importance. The return of weeks since. They were posted at Fonday book and ledger, to see no farther than the Bonaparte to Paris has excited the live-di, Terano, Itri, Moli, &c. They never spectacles on his nose, to feel not beyond the of art, lie in a small comparative compass. pen behind his ear—to chatter in coffee houses liest joy in France. The papers are full occupied Gacta. General Filistad, in the The neutral trade can carry them. Your and be the oracle of clubs. From 1783 to 1793 ed with addresses, &c. on this occasion, service of Naples, occupies that place with produce rots in the ware-house—You go to 'Statia or St. Thomas's and get a striped blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. The two first possessed blanket for a joe if you can raise one of had Spain. blanket for a joe if you can raise one---- of thriving manufactures and a flourishing ceeding papers we shall give all that is lish.

LONDON, February 5.

king and lord Grenville: Mr. Erskine, Lord Chancellor; Lord BERLIN, Jan. 29.—Count Schulenburg ministration.

tion—even of the Mississippi. What is it. Without such a precaution go to the situation of New Orleans it tracked was when your such a precaution of the Mississippi. What is it. Without such a precaution of the Mississippi. What is it. Without such a precaution of the Mississippi. What is it. Without such a precaution of the Mississippi. What is it. Without such a precaution of the Mississippi. What is it. Without such a precaution go to I will not launch into an ocean of unexplored. Admiralty; Mr. Elliot, Principal Secrethe situation of New Orleans if attacked war when you will, you go to the wall. measures, which stand condemned by all the tary for Ireland; Lord Minto, Governor- territory, like children in the bosom of to-morrow? Filled with a discontented As to debts-strike the balance to-mor-information to which I have access. The con- General of Bengal; Lord Robert Spencer, their family. My people will conduct to imbecile government—You have official rely for support of their measure. Who war, and even the course of hostilities, depends conded by Lord Viscount Carleton in the

The Gazette also contains an Order in Coun-

PARIS, Jan. 29,-Their Majesties the lay, last. Neapoleon travelled incognito. Callerrand arrived the same day. Their trival was announced by discharges of [

M. Mollier is appointed Minister of

M. Massena arrived at Bolagna the 9th. instant, and was soon to set off to join the army on its march to Naples. Augereau arrived at Mentz on the 21st.

VENICE, Jan. 16 .- The French troops . took possession of this city yesterday.

Hanoven, Jan. 20 .- The German Leand are on their march back to Hanover.

Nothing announces the departure of the Russians. Their troops that were on the right bank of the Weser, have recrossed that river to repair to Celle. Recruiting has recommended with more activity than

French troops are about to be cantoned

NAPLES, Jan. 28 .- The Russians took their departure from Naples, about a fortnight since, in two divisions. There remain at Baya, in the road of Naples, only two Russian frigates. All the Russian Generals are gone, after having restored to the King the Horses they had required. It is thought they are returned to

The English lest Naples about three weeks since. They were posted at Fon-

All the risings in mass are dissolved. The remainder of the Neapolitan Troops List of the ministry, such as it was defi- occupy Naples, FortSt. Elmo&dell'Uovo, nitively settled yesterday between the and several fortified towns in Apulia. The Abruzzos are evacuated.

Lord Henry Petty, Chancellor of the Ex- the Electorate of Hanover, which will be

VIENNA, Jan., 30.—The army of the

tensive even than our own—Russia, sir, business when you may, land taxes, stamp the store-house of the British navy—acts, window takes hearth money, whom it is not more the policy and the in excise, in all its modifications of version and the emperor them, use them for our interest and convenience of the business General for a standard play their own game upon and play their own game upon them, use them for our interest and convenience of the British navy—acts, window takes hearth money, nience. But with all my abhorrence of the latter than the convenience of the latter whom it is not more the policy and the in- excise, in all its modifications of vexation British government, I should not hesitate be- of Lancaster; the Duke of Bedford, Lord late season of the year made two camp terest, than the sentiment of that govern- and oppression, must precede, or follow tween Westminster Hall and a Middlesex jury Lieutenant of Ireland. paigns—you have performed every thing ment, to soothe and to conciliate; her after. But, sir, as French is the on the one hand, and the wood of Vincennes Mr. Adam, Chancellor to the Prince of I expected from you. I am setting out sole hope of a diversion on the continent, fashion of the day, I may be asked for and a file of Grenadiers on the other. That Wales; Mr. Pigot, Attorney General; to return to my capital. I have promote sole hope of a diversion on the continent, fashion of the day, I may be asked for and a file of Grenadiers on the other. That her only efficient ally. What this formi-dable power cannot obtain with fleets and what I will not do. I will not propitiate armies, you will command by writ—with any foreign nation with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies, you will command by writ—with any foreign nation with secution with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies, you will command by writ—with any foreign nation with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies, you will command by writ—with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies, you will command by writ—with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies, you will command by writ—with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is, I confess, more to my taste, than armies with secution is a confess, and the secution is a confess, and t pot hooks and hangers. I am for no such launch into a naval war with Great, Bri. Mr. Chairman, I am sensible of having de- Elliot, Lords of the Treasury; Mr. Bond, promised. You have seen that your empolicy. True honor is always the same. thin, although I am ready to meet her at tained the committee longer than I ought— Judge Advocate; Doctor Lawrence, Soli- peror has shared with you all dangers Before you enter into a contest, public the Cowpens or on Bunker's Hill. And or private, be sure you have fortitude for this plain reason. We are a great enough to go through with it. If you land animal, and our business is on shore. enough to go through with it. If you land animal, and our business is on shore. own indulgence, sir, badly requited indeed, to Mr. Creevey, under Secretary of State of splendour which becomes the sovereign No change has taken place in the beginning of the month of May I will give you a grand festival at Pāris; you a Soldiers, during the three months which are necessary for your return to. Lord Harrowby and Mr. Hammond are France, be the example of all armies. You have now to give examples not of courage and intrepidity, but of strict discipline-may my allies no more have to Mr. M'Creevey, one of the Lords of the | complain of your behavior.! Conduct

Price of Stocks, 3 per cent. Cons. 61 3-4 round my Palace, is pleasing to my heart. and I feel before hand the most delight world shall see that we are ready to follow their example, and, if necessary, to

"NAPOLEON. "By order of the Emperor " Major General Marshal BERTHIERA Schonbrunn, 6th Sivore, Dec. 27,

TICKETS In the Market House Lotte 14 for sale at this office. March 3