WE, the subscribers, of the city of Baltimore, do hereby certify, that Mr. William Merryman has acted towards us, as his creditors, in an honorable and upright manner-and has settled with us, we believe, to the utmost of his ability, and much to our satisfaction. We are convinced his failure in business proceeded not from his own misconduct, but from those misfortunes incident to trade.

And further, after the insolvent act was passed in his favor, he shewed no disposition to use it to our injury, but made us, his crediters, such liberal propositions as to convince us of his correct intentions towards us.

NOTICE.

THE Merchants and citizens of Baltimore generally, are respectfully informed, the subscriber intends residing on the Bodkin Isfand for this season, namely, until the first of December next; and will shew signals by a telegraphe. The signal flags described, number of vessels of each description who have no flags, &c He purposes to have a complete sail boat for boarding vessels in the bay, to bring up the captains and letter bags. When vessels of a large draught of water, with contrary winds cannot proceed, such a plan will of course, he highly interesting. With respect to signale, it is intended to have them noticed in such a manner as for them to be noted on the coffee house books—the prints to take them as other maritime news, for the gratification of the citizens generally. The Observatory may also repeat from the Telegraphe. A plan of my proposals will in a few days be offered for signatures, and if a reasonable support is given the citizens shall be highly gratified. The institution cannot fail to prove pleasing and interesting. It will of course often times remove doubte of a serious nature-many may know it by experience. With due respect, I am the merchants and other citizens' obed't servant, DAVID PORTER.
