

AUGUSTA, March 27.

We understand that John Randolph, who was charged with the murder of Mr. M'Norrel, the deputy sheriff, had his trial at the superior court for the county of Burke on Thursday last, when the following circumstances appeared in evidence...

joining Baronies of Tyrally and Tyrarogh, in the counties of Mayo and Sligo; and that troops have been moved upon those points in consequence of the assemblage of the people in bodies too numerous not to excite attention of Government.

Another English paper contains the following remarks ON THE PEACE OF PRESBURG.

The peace of Presburg may be considered as not only a new era in the history of Germany, but the relations of France with the German Empire. Ever since the peace of Westphalia, the constant policy of France has been to protect the smaller States and Princes of the Empire against the ambition of the stronger Powers.

If the Emperor of Germany attacked the territory, or encroached upon the rights of a neighboring Prince or Elector, it would have been in vain for France to attempt opposing her pretensions by merely exciting the injured Prince to arms, or organizing a league among those who, from being placed in a similar situation, had similar interests in resenting the injury.

At the same court also Absalom Merit was tried on a charge for killing a negro by immoderate or improper correction, but there being no evidence of his exercising any extraordinary severity...

Connecticut—Federal candidates have succeeded in this state at the late election, to every office it would be a miracle were it otherwise, for the press is in a state of slavery—the body of the people are debarr'd the right of suffrage—the mode of voting is by voice, and therefore all who are in any way dependent must vote for the federalists, or be persecuted to the ruin of themselves and families...

New-Hampshire—John Langdon, the republican candidate, is re-elected governor, with very little opposition—in the legislature, there are but few federalists.

Vermont—The republicans contemplate supporting Israel Smith, now senator U. S. as their candidate for the governor's chair of this state, at present occupied by Mr. Tichenor, a federalist. The other branches of government are republican.

Rhode-Island—James Fenner, now senator U. S. is contemplated by the republicans as governor of this state.

OGDEN'S CASE.

We learn by a letter from New-York, that the court over-ruled the plea in abatement of Mr. Ogden's counsel as to the illegality of the testimony submitted to the grand jury, and put the defendants to plead upon the indictments.

[Philadelphia paper.]

The following are the names of the unfortunate seamen who were drowned in the night of the 9th inst. whilst rendering their voluntary assistance to the ship Cordelia, capt. Delano.

Benjamin Taber, first mate of the brig Fredonia, of Newbedford;—Isaiah Terry second mate of ship Rhoda & Betsey, of do. Charles Phelps, of Glastonbury, Connecticut, a seaman belonging to the schr. Rambler, of Rochester;—Boyle, Johnson, and William Allen, natives of Sweden, and William Douglas, a black man cook. The three last were seamen belonging to the Cordelia.

From circular letters received in this city, it appears that a number of the principal mathematicians of the United States, have agreed to hold a mathematical conference in the city of Philadelphia, on Monday, the 2d day of June next.

(N. Y. paper.)

A very alarming mortality prevails in Medfield among the children. It is said, that eleven have died within a few weeks, the eldest about fifteen years. They are generally ill not more than twenty-four hours, and often from a sound state of health in the morning are a corpse before night. Many of the faculty, we understand, have been consulted, but are perfectly baffled in searching for the cause.

"Memoirs of the Dead, and Tomb's Remembrancer."

THE compilers of the above work, most respectfully inform the friends of the deceased relatives, and the public generally, that it is now rapidly preparing for the Press, to which it will be put in a few days. As their earnest wishes are, that the compilation shall be as complete and full as possible—they request those who have recently met with melancholy losses, and over whose places of interment no inscriptions have yet been placed, that they will please forward their names, ages, and time of departure, together with such inscriptions as they intend, or would wish to have written on the grave stones, of such relatives deceased. It must surely afford at least a melancholy pleasure to see the name of a dear departed friend preserved from mouldering unnoticed and unknown.

Please direct to Wm. C. Cochran, Harrison-street Academy.

Five Hundred Dollars Reward.

FILED from the City of Baltimore, on Tuesday night, the 18th of March last, GEORARD VON HARTEN, a merchant, and partner in the firm of Kenter and Von Harten, of that place. Some short time previous to his flight he forged promissory notes, to a very large amount, on twenty-eight of which forged notes (amounting to forty thousand dollars) twenty-eight indictments have been found against him, in the criminal court of Baltimore County. GEORARD VON HARTEN is a middle sized man—five feet six or seven inches high—about thirty-two years of age—he has a round and regularly featured face—of fair complexion, with full red cheeks, and is slightly pitted with the small pox—his eyes are rather small, and of a dark hazle colour—his mouth small with a good set of teeth—his hair is dark or chestnut coloured, and is cropped short—He is a native of Germany, and retains much of the Dutch accent in speaking English, which he articulates slowly and with a little lisp.

When he left Baltimore, he travelled leisurely through Virginia, collecting his debts in Fredericksburg, Richmond and other parts of the state, and about the first of April was seen at Stanton, near which place he is supposed to be at present. Any person apprehending said VON HARTEN, and lodging him in any jail in the United States, so that he may be brought to punishment for the Forgeries lately committed by him in Baltimore, and giving notice thereof to us the subscribers in said City, shall receive the above Reward.

SAMUEL M'KIM and JEREMIAH SULLIVAN, N. B.—Having debts due him in Kentucky, Tennessee, the Carolinas and Georgia, should he leave Virginia, will probably visit one of these states.

Editors of papers throughout the United States, will render a service to the commercial world by publishing the foregoing in their papers.
