To the Voters of the City and County of Baltimore.
GENTLEMEN,
HAVING been solicited by a number of my friends in the city and county, to offer myself a candidate for the office of SHERIFF, at the ensuing election, and feeling a consciousness that I possess the necessary qualifications to discharge the duties attached to that office, I now come forward and respectfully solicit your votes and interest at the ensuing election; assuring you, that, if I should become your choice, I shall make every exertion to discharge the duties attached to the office with punctuality, integrity and humanity, as far as may be consistent with the interest of those whom I may have the honor to serve.

IN the woodland of the subscriber near the upper end of the Falls Turnpike road some time in January last, a Cow with a young calf—The Cow is red with a white face, belly and part of her legs, with some little white on her back, has the marks of being about ten years old; the calf at that time appeared to be three or four days old, & both were extremely poor.— The owner is desired to come, prove property

For Sale,
A very valuable TRACT of LAND, in Baltimore county, within 11 1/2 miles of the city of Baltimore, containing 640 acres, seated on a branch of the Middle River, which empties into the Chesapeake Bay, and is within about 5 miles of the City of Baltimore. There are about 40 acres of timber, calculated for every useful purpose, such as ship-building, staves, &c. The soil is calculated to raise every species of country produce, but it is more particularly adapted for an extensive grazing farm, as more than one half may be made choice meadow. The river, in which this land is seated, is navigable for vessels drawing about 8 feet water, and abounds with the best fish, with which markets are supplied, and there is not, perhaps, at this time, a tract of land offered for sale in the state, that enjoys more real advantages than this; its contiguity to the city of Baltimore, which is confessedly the best market on the continent, and the advantage of water carriage for ship timber, staves, and fire wood, which is always in demand, and bears a flattering price, are objects which, the attention of any person wanting to purchase such a place. A part of the purchase money will be required down, and a pleasing credit given for the balance. For further particulars apply to Baltimore, to Information Wanted.

IF a certain THOMAS CORKERAN who came to this country about twenty-six years ago, from the parish of Glasmore, county of Waterford, Ireland, be yet alive, by directing a letter to Wm. and Thomas Corkeran, No. 72, Cumberland-row, Baltimore, he will hear of something to his advantage. Said Thomas Corkeran lived formerly in Street-street, No.
25, sign of the Three Castles, New-York; and also lived a few years ago in Harmon-street, and left it about three years since. Any person or persons who have been acquainted with THE compilers of the above work, most respectfully inform the friends of the deceased relatives, and the public generally, that it is now rapidly preparing for the Press, to which it will be put in a few days. Their earnest wishes are, that the compilation shall be as complete and full as possible—they request those who have recently met with melancholy losses, and over whose places of interment no inscriptions have yet been placed, that they will please forward their names, ages, and time of departure, together with such inscriptions as they intend, or would wish to have written on the grave stones, of such relatives deceased. It must surely afford at least a melancholy pleasure to see the name of a dear departed friend preserved from mouldering unnoticed and unknown.
