The rev. Mr Kurtz, Mr. William Wilson, Mr. Jesse Hollingsworth, Mr. Peter Hoffman.

The president lays before the board the report of the female directors of said, school, with sundry documents attested by the matron thereof; from which it appears, that there are at present twentynine scholars in said school, receiving their education, clothing, and some c them their board: that in the course of the last year, thirteen poor female children, after receiving an useful education suited to their condition, were dismissed from said school; eleven thereof were bound to reputable characters, the two remaining were returned to their reputable mothers, who wished to obtain the benefit of their children's labor. trustees, after maturely considering the same, and being well assured of the zeal. and economy of the female directors, and in an especial manner of their freedom from giving an undue preserence to the children of any particular religious denomination,

Resolved unanimously, That the said trustees have abundant reason to be satisfied with the management and condition of said school: and as the generous con--tributions heretofore made to the support thereof have invariably been so well applied, Resolved further, That the said trustees have just grounds to believe that the benefactors to this charity will not regret a continuance of their annual aid, on which the existence of the institution in a great measure depends.
