Extract of a letter from the Hon, Harry Toulmin, to the Elitor, dated, Fort Stephens (Miss. Ter.) Murch 1st. 1806.

" We are looking for war daily—but are much in the dark. The Spaniards have lately ed in co. with brig Havanna Packet, for sent 70 additional men from Pensancola to Mobile, and are daily getting fire wood and other nec ssaries into the fort; and have cut d'wn athe under growth with n a mile of the town. They likewise flatter the Indians. The Commandant lately had one hundred barrels of corn measured out among a party of them and gave them a talk. They wer- our Choctaws. But we hope they will be faithful.

"There is a Frenchman in Spanish pay, of the name of Favre, who used to live here, and now lives near the mouth of Pearle river, that is peculiarly industrious in exciting the Choctaws against our settlement. He embraces every opportunity in urging their head men to fall in upon and destroy u-and makes their doing so, the test by which their regard to the Spanish government is to be determined.

"But the Choctaws are fearf lof the event, and want to see a good Spanish force in the country before they stir. Indeed, there are none, I believe, inclined to favor the Spaniards but the lower Choctaus, who are not nume-
