For Sale,
A very valuable TRACT of LAND, in Baltimore county, within 11 1/2 miles of the city of Baltimore, containing 640 acres, seated on a branch of Middle River, which empties into, and is within about 5 miles of the Chesapeake Bay. There are about 40 acres of this land cleared, the residue, about 600 acres, abounds with valuable timber, calculated for every useful purpose, such as ship-building, staves, &c. The soil is calculated to raise every species of country produce, but it is more particularly adapted for an extensive grazing farm, as more than one half may be made choice meadow. The river, on which this land is seated, is navigable for vessels drawing about 8 feet water, and abounds with the best fish, with which markets are supplied, and there is not, perhaps, at this time, a tract of land offered for sale in the state, that enjoys more real advantages than this; it is contiguous to the city of Baltimore, which is confessedly the best market on the continent, and the advantage of water carriage for ship timber, staves, tan-bark and fire wood, which is always in demand, and bears a flattering price, are objects worthy the attention of any person wanting to purchase such a place. A part of the purchase money will be required down, and a pleasing credit given for the balance. For further particulars apply in Baltimore, to

PR POSAL
BY GEORGE DOBBIN & MURPHY,
For publishing by subscription, in one volume octavo, price to Subscribers one dollar fifty cents, neatly bound, payable on delivery
OF THE
REV. JOHN WESLEY, A. M.
To which will be prefixed,
A COMPREHENSIVE HISTORY OF THE WESLEY FAMILY:
And an appendix, Examining the Rise, Progress, and present state of the Methodist Church in the United States.

THE Rev. Mr. Wesley was one of the most distinguished characters who arose in the Christian world during the eighteenth century. The variety of his writings, the number of Christians who have joined him, his extraordinary zeal, indefatigable perseverance, and exemplary life, all point him out as worthy of imitation. His publications in which the events of his life are recorded, are so multifarious, that it was desirable to have a more brief relation of his journeys and ministerial success. This has been already executed by Dr. Whitehead, Dr. Coke and Mr. Moore and others still more concisely. The object of this publication is to connect together in one volume, the most striking events which occurred during his long existence—Two motives have impelled this attempt—the scarcity of Dr. Whitehead's volumes, and a desire in many of the friends to see a portable account of the founder of the present Methodist Society, with a history of the means, which used under the blessings of God, have rendered their members so numerous.
The above work will be printed on a new type and good paper.—It will be put to press, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to defray the expences.
A portrait of Herd. Mr. Wesley, executed by an eminent artist will face the title page.
Subscriptions received by the different Booksellers in Baltimore, and by the Publishers, No. 4, Baltimore-street. Price to non-subscribers, one dollar seventy-five cents.

She is about 20 years of age, is a slender, straight, handsome middle black woman, supposed about 5 feet 4 inches high, round face with good features, pleasant countenance when spoken to (in a good humor) she smiles and shows a pretty set of white teeth. Her ears are bored and had small round rings in them, when she went away; she generally wore a Madras handkerchief tied round her head; she has with her a new dress, red figured, with white sleeves, a white dimity dress made into petticoat and jacket; a white cambric muslin dress, a large red Damask silk shawl. Also a lincey country made petticoat and jacket, striped with red, white and blue, a pair of black Morocco shoes. The Subscriber,
TO save the trouble of particular communications, to those gentlemen in the different quarters of the state, who have been so kind as to take charge of subscription papers for the work in which he engaged, on land affairs, takes this method of notifying them, that the undertaking is in such forwardness, as to require that his dispositions for publication should be conclusively settled by the end of August next. As the general approbation and encouragement which this design has received, leave but little doubt of his obtaining a moderate compensation for his labor, he does not mean to hazard much for the possibility of greater advantages, but intends to limit the number of copies to be printed, very heavily to that of the subscriptions which shall have been received by the period above-mentioned. He therefore respectfully requests those gentlemen to forward to him, in the course of the said month of August, either the subscription papers in their hands, or transcripts of the signatures thereon; (the latter in preference, where there may still remain an expectation of augmenting the lists) and that in the mean time, they would take all convenient means of announcing and explaining the undertaking to their fellow-citizens, in order that he may be enabled, with some degree of exactness, to ascertain and provide for the real demand for the work.
