conflagration, we shall not at this time state some futs relative to it, nor offer some reflections which they have sugrested.

The consequences have been, and still continue to be very seriously felt by the inhabitants residing near the Swamp; the heated atmosphere occasioned by, and the smoke proceeding from, such an immense body of fire, have rendered their habitations almost insupportable. These effects have been for some days past though in a lesser degree extended to this place and Portsmouth, and at this moment occasion much inconvenience, and are productive of all the disagreeable sensutions which heat & smoke may be supposed to occasion.

At the moment we are writing, and for the last two days, the wind has been to the southward, which setting the smoke directly on this place, the sun has been only at times visible, and the horizon contracted to not more than a mile distant, and aften not more than half of a milo, and sometimes we have not been able to see three hundred yards.

The captains who have lately arrived, inform us, that on approaching the land they experienced great inconvenience, & were exposed to some dangers from the same circumstance; they state it was at times so thick from the smoke, that they could not see a mile a head.

The pilots also find difficulty in conducting the vessels up and down the ri-

A change of wind will relieve the inhatants of the towns for the present, but nothingbut ruin, (which is so devoutly to be desired, for this and other seasons) can remedy the mischiefs effectually [Ledger.]

M'Culloch's selected Music. Subscribers for the above work will be received by Graig, Engles & Co. No. 224 Mark-t-street.

IT is now printing in Philadelphia, and is generally allowed to be the cheapest work o the kind ever offered to the public It wil comprise all the music of established merit. of every country. The series of arrangement in volumes, will be principally according to the following order:-

Thomson's publication of Scottish music does honor to the compiler and to the nation. justly deserves the praise of every lover of melody and fine poetry. It comprises all the Scots airs of merit, collated with the utmost research respecting originality and excellence. Three of the best judges and composers of the day were engaged in it, Messrs. Pleyel, Kozeluch, and Haydn. The celebrated Burns and Walpole were employed to compose new songs, or amend such as were exceptionable The musical text was thereby established. Prior to this many of the 'finest Scottish, melodies were attached to indecent words, and in consequence, excluded from polished society. The songs of Erin are many and sweet. They have never been collected as national, but may justly rank among the foremost beauties of composition.

The German music possesses excellence similar to the Scots. The interesting names of Sussmeier, Cospoth, Umlauf, Mozart, Hurka D ttersdorff, Haydn, Nageli, Sch. lz, & others. appear as composers of the music in the German Erato: The poetry is by the famous Burr ger, Holtz, Goethe, Klopstock, Gleiner, Coerbeck, Shiller, Kleist, &c. The translations are done with great taste and spirit, in a style distinct from every other nation.

The cadence, spirit, and plaintiveness of Wales, though peculiar, claim's share of attachment. Many of the tunes of that country require but to be known to be admired .. " All the American airs of merit; will be in-

The music of France, Italy, Spain, and other nations, will not be wholly an eglected. Specimens of the Chinese, Asiatic, and Indian style will also be submitted.

Last, but not least, the admirable and inexhaustible variety of English songs, the catch trio, the cantata, the full chorus, and opera, of Dibden, Hook, and others.

CONDITIONS. A number, containing eight crown folio pages of typographical music and letter press, will be delivered once a fortnight, to subscribers only. "at twenty-five cents—one four h less than that for which the commonest publications have his therto been offered.
