A letter from Amsterdam dated 10th April, received by the ship True American, says, " Every day affords something new. The papers of this morning allude to new troubles on the continent. It is said that Russian troops are marching into Prussian Poland. Business generally speaking, is brisk, and prices steady. Coffee scarce."

> TRINIDAD. A PROCLAMATION.

By his excellency Thomas Hyslop, F.sq. brigadier general in his majesty's service, and lieutenant governor commanding in chief in and over the island of Trinidad and its dependencies.

WHEREAS the general scarcity of provisions not the produce of this island, and of lumber, still continues to prevail, and the exigencies of the colony require that the period limited for the importation thereof from neutral and other states in amity with Great Britain, in vessels to the said estates belonging, should further extend unto the 19th day of Octob, rnext; I do therefore, by and with the advice of his majesty's council, hereby publish, proclaim, and declare that flour, rice, bre d, biscuit, peas, beans, corn, fruit, potatoes, corn and rye mal, oats, le f, pork, salted and pickled fish; bucon, hams, and provisions of any sort; tobacco, pitch, tur and turpentine; hog's lard and lamp oil; cattle, horses, sheep, hogs, mules, poultry, and live stock of any sort; boards, plank, ranging timber, scamling, claphoards, hoops, staves, shingles, shooks and heading, swars, oars, and unmanufactured timber of any sort; such commo ities respectively being the growth or produce of any of the territories belonging to the said states, shall and may, until the said 10th day of Oc. tober next, be imported and brought into this island from any of the said territories, in vessels belonging thereto, upon the like terms, charges, and conditions, and subject to the same rules, visitations and restrictions are observed with respect to British vessels in the like cases:

And I do also, by and with the advice of his majesty's council, hereby publish. proclaim, and declare that the importers of the articles herein befor enumerate and expressed, may receive in barter or exchange for the same any articles of the growth, produce, or manuf cture of this island (indigo cotton, arnotto, cocoa, coffee, cochineal, lignumvitz, and dying woods, excepted,) to the exact amount of such respective cargoes and no more; and in order to prevent the introduction into this island of any goods or commodities not hereinbesore enumerated or expressed, by means or under pretext o the permission aforesaid, I do also, by & with the advice of his majesty's council, hereby proclaim, publish, and declare, That if any such vess I, as aforesaid, arriving at, or in said island, shall have on board any goods or commodities whatsoever as are usually denominated dry goods, such goods and commodities will, according to the statutes in such cases made and provided, be seized and forfeited, together with the vessel in which the same shall be brought and all her tackle, apparel and furniture, whether such goods or commodities shall be intended to be landed or not.

And the several officers of his majesty's customs, and all others his majesty's subjects, are hereby enjoined and require ed to govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my hand and seal in the council chamber, government-house, this 19th day of April. 1806, and in the for-· ty sixth year of his majesty's reign.

CHARLESTON May 21. General Miranda,-Captain Griffiths arrived on Saturday, from Rio Pongo, touched at St. Bartholomews, from whence he sailed 14 days since. The morning previous to his departure, accounts were received via St. Kitts, that General Miranda had landed his forces at Margaretta, whence he had crossed over to Cumana, & which place immediately surrendered to his arms. It was juriher stated, that wherever he erected his standard, the inhabitants and natives flocked to join him; that his flag was flying on every fort from Cumana, to Laguira, and that he had obtuined complete! possession of the provinces of Cumana;

COMMERCIAL DAILY ADVERTISER

SATURDAY, MAY 24, 1806

The ship Hop, Dashiell, hence, to Amsterdam, has arrived at Penzance.

Boston, Sunday, May 18, 2 o'clock. This moment arrived the ship Galen, captain Stedman, 37 days from London, and 31 from the Downs. By her we have been furnished with papers fosthe 9th ult. 3 days later than by the Hambden. Nothing of particular consequence had transpired. They announced the arrival of a number of British vessels from Embden, &c. some with and some without cargoes. Also many Prusian vessels sent in by their cruizers. A flag of truce arrived at Dover on the 7th from Boulogne. A paper of the 9th, contains the following extracts:

The Gazette contains a note stating that the requsite communication had been made to the foreign ministers at count by Mr. Fox, apprising them that the Ems, the Elbe, the Weser and Trave have . been put in a state of blockade. The trade of Hamburg, Embden, Lubec and Breman, and of those places carried on through them train principal channels, is thus catoff.

Much speculation continues to be excited by the arrival of the dast flag of truce. But no more is known of the matter than the fact of the arrival of dispatches. This forms all the data on which the opinions of the public respecting the nature of the communications are built. Many incline to think that something of peace, as well as the exchange of prisoners, is in agitation.

Extruct of a letter, from London, dated . April 1, 1806.

" I am happy to inform you that the intercoursa between the British West Indies and the United States, relative to supplies of lumber and provisions is settled on a liberal footing."

Extract of a letter from Amsterdam, dated

April 9 "The measures taken in the North of Germany have produced a demand for colonial produce at advanced prices."

The British war brig Busy, appears very industrious in boarding our vessels. Scarcely one escapes the compliment of a visit. The captain, to be sure, has behaved with rather more politeness than his gallant predecessors, yet the indignity of having our chief port thus pestered is not less irksome. We should be pleased to see an American brig placed in the neighborhood to "correct the procedure." [E. Poost.]
