> Is She Rich? ANEXTRACT.

"SINCE the question now asked concerning alady is not, Is she handsome? Is she accomplished? or, Isshe amiable? but, Isshe RICH! It is of the greatest importance to the sex, that this question should be answered in the affirmative. Now there has been no shorter method yet discovered, (not even by Sir Issac Newton) of becoming rich, (for saving industry is not only very slow and tedious, but is now becoming quite unfashionable) there is no shorter method than that of becoming adventurers" in the Precincts Market-House Lottery, now drawing, in which, notwithstanding scarcely four thousand tickets are yet drawn, the wheel has gained the astonishing sum of six thousand eight hundred and thirty seven dollars, neither of the capital prizes being yet drawn. M'Culloch's selected Music. Subscribers for the above work will be received by Graig, Engles & Co. No. 224, Market-

T is now printing in Philadelphia, and is generally allowed to be the cheapeast work of the kind ever offered to the public. It will compromise all the music of established merit, of every country. The series of arrangement in volumes, will be principally according to the following order:-

Thompson's publication of cottish music does honor to the compiler and to the nation. It justly deserves the praise of every lover of melody and fine poetry. It comprises all the Scots airs of merit, callated with the utmost research respecting originality and excellence. Three of the best judges and composers of the day were engaged in it, Messrs. Pleyel, Kozeluch, and Hayon. The celebrated Burns and Walpole were employed to compose new songs, or amend such as were exceptionable The musical text was thereby established. Prior to this many of the finest Scottish melodies were attached to indecent words, and in consequence, excluded from polished society.

The songs of Erin are many and sweet. They have never been collected as national, but may justly rank among the foremost beauties of composition.

The German music possesses excellence similar to the Scots. The interesting names of Sussmeier, Cospoth, Umlauf, Mozart, Hurka Dittersdorff, Haydn, Nageli, Schulz, & o thers, appear as composers of the music in the Ger. man Erato. The poetry is by the famous Bur ger, Holtz, Goethe, Klopstock, Gleiner, Coer beck, Shiller, Kleist, &c. The translations are open with great taste and spirit, in a style distinct from every other nation.

The cadence, spirit, and plaintiveness of Wales, though peculiar, claim a share of attachment. Many of the tunes of that country require but to be known to be admired. All the American airs of merit will be in-

The music of France, Italy, Spain, and other nations, will not be wholly neglected. Specimens of the Chinese, Asiatic, and Indian style will also be submitted.

Last, but not least, the admirable and inexhaustible variety of English songs, the catch trio, the cantata, the full chorus, and opera, of Dibden, Hook, and others.

. CONDITIONS. A number, containing eight crown folio pages of typographical music and letter press, will be delivered once a fortnight, to subscribers only, at twenty-five cents—one fourthless than that for which the commonest publications have hitherto been offered.

Title, index, elucidations, &c. will be printed at the close of each volume. The first number is now ready for delivery, and Nos. 2, 3 and 4, are expected in s
