If any such exist, we solemuly engage to do it away also.

If there is none but the one alluded to is the President's will that the claim be admitted.

To the above we beg leave to add, as observed by us to his excellency the French Minister, that the claim must be either good or bad, for the whole of it. Hence the unavoidable consequence that the claimants are unjustly wronged to the amount of 800,000 francs in the first
