At half past 5 o'clock the company rose from the table in a state of harmony and order worthy of the glorious epoch they celebrated-every man pleased-every one wishing to please-and proceeded on their way towards town. While the company was collecting, the gentlemen of the band placed themselves on the declivity of a hill, and accompanied several execulent patriotiesongs given by different citizens, in the enoruses of which the people joined with enthusiasm. The great body of the company then sermed a procession and marched through the Point, and from thence up to Mr. Fuiton's Inn, preceded and accompanied by a number of revolutionary officers and the band, which, during the whole time, continued to play the most favorite national airs and marches.

Some refrestiments being had, Col. Low-Ty was calle! to the chair and the following song was surg by one of the company. THE AND ANACHTOR IN HEAVEN."

FOURTH OF JULY.

A number of gentlemen " Citizens of the Republic of America," and unau Litious of any other political distinction, though entertaining different opinions in politics as well as religion, met agrecably to arrangement, at an early hour on Friday terenoon, in commemoration of the day, in a shady grove near Mr. Samuel Vincent's spring; and after spending sever I hours in diverting exercises, set down at 2 o'elock, to a plentiful and rich repast-major Mackenheimer, president, Matiney Brown and Alexander Nesbit, And their practice accords with their contid | esquire, vice-presidents. The table in the shape of the body of a kite, had been s judy iously arranged by Mr. V. as to contain 90 cover; and an awning suspended over nearly the whole, gave a fine Let our cuter give the word, and be sately I effect to the music, while it shed off every ray of the sun:

It was the peculiar good fortune of this company to have among them a number of gentlemen, whose telents both for vocal and instrumental music, have ben well known and highly estimated. Having formed an association some time preceding the day, and performed together the pieces a apted to the occasion, under the direction of their able teacher Mr. Wolle -they gave the most enchanting effect to the scene, and evinced in full force the power of music over the soul of man. We hesitate not to say, that no band we have ever heard would bear to them any comparison; and that the whole company must feel under great obligations to those who so essentially contributed to the sublimity of their enjoyments

After the covers were removed the

A friend to Isaac Purnell, Esq. has authorised us to say, that he is not a candidate for director in the Union Bank of Maryland.

NOTICE.

The following gentlemen will be generally supported This Day as new directors of the Union Bank of Maryland.

> Stewart Brown, John G. Proud, Walter Dorsey,

Hezeki h Clarett. Thorndick Chase.

The following gentlemen are recommended as anitable persons to be new directors of the Union Bank and wili be generally supported:

Hezekiah Clagett, Benjamin Williams, John G. Proud, . . Thorndick Chase, Stewart Brown.

MR. PREHIN,

I beg leave to recommend the sollowing gentlemen as suitable persons for directors in the Union Bank of Mary-

Steuart Brown, John G. Prond, - George F. Warfield, Matthew Brown,

John Pantninge, esqr. has been named for a director of the Union Bank; his friends are numerous and respectable, and it is confidently believed, he will-be firmly supported by all those to whom he is personally known. Indeed, every stockholder will support kim if he properly consults his own interest and the interest of the institution. Both in a public and private capacity he has ever evideed a fervor of friendship and partiality in premoting the prosperity of Baltimore; & he is an extensive holder of stock in different public establishments in this city. But a further inducement presents itself when we can confidently state, that he will want little, if any, of the funds of the Bank.

ROBERT CORNTHWAIT is recommended by all lovers of good principles as a proper person to discharge the duties of a director in the " Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore."

MR. PECHIN,

Ox the 7th inst. the stockholders in the Union Bank will be called upon to elect sixteen directors for the ensuit g year, and as it is well understood that five of the present board are not eliquide for the next year-I take the liberty of recommending the following gentlemen, who I am well presured will be warmly supported by a large number of stockholders, and when it is known, what I provided aver to be the truth, that some of them will not require any accommodation, and have no model friends to assist, it is believed they will receive the united en mort of the friends and stockholders W. F. in this institution.
