Cordial Balm of Gilead.

A JUDICIOUS writer remarks, that "to live with satisfaction to one's self and others, To produce as many comf rts of life as are con-Bistent with cur mental and bodily constitution, and be avert impending canger, or in other words, to preserve ourselves from the injurious attack of external agents, are nearly the whole of what relates to the practical part of human life." If thee to live with satisfaction to ourselves and others is so desirable, how can we accordulish it when deprived of that whichis? more to be esteemed than gold and treasures that which enlarges the soul—that which, when possessed, leaves little more to be wished forthat which when wanted is the greatest of wants-even that which is the greatest of-all blessings, namely HEALTH! The principal source of mistry, then being the loss of this great jewel, it behaves us to find a remedy for those diseases, which have bitherto baffled the * skill of the Faculty, namely nervous, consumptive, and hypochondrisc. Such a medicine, for its healing, balsamie, friendly and sanative qua lities upon the debilitated constitution, de serves the wondrous encouragement it meet with from all ranks who have been fortunate e nough to have recourse to it.

The public from the above recommendation will of course be desirous to make a trial, and for their convenience, Dr. Solomon has appointed WARNER & HANNA, as his only agents for the city of Baltimore.

Patent Medicines, principally prepared in Europe and by some other established physicians in this country, may be had only at the above store. July 9
