This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, the particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution; contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and towels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many afatal disorders. They are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and cruptions; feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.
