50 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 5th inst. a dark mulatto man, named MIKE, about 30 years of age, five feet 8 or 9 inches, much bronzed in the face; his eyes bloodshot when he went away, occasioned by fighting; he is lame in his right leg, the ankle quite stiff, and his foot stands very much to the left side; his wool is long and he generally wears it platted; he is very fond of playing on the fiddle. He took with him a good many clothes, among which was a red kersey round jacket and trousers of the same; one pair of coarse country linen trousers; two shirts, and one Irish linen shirt; one spotted calico round jacket; one white Muscullunder jacket, and some other clothing not recollected. The above reward will be given to any person that will secure the said mulatto in any manner, so that I may find him, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home.

In Baltimore County Court,

MAY 13, 1836.

ON application to the Judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of William Starr, surviving partner of William Starr and Joseph Price, of said County, praying the benefit of the Act for the Relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at November Session, 23rd of October and Five, on the terms mentioned in the said Act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said Act, being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said William Starr has resided the two preceding years within the State of Maryland, prior to the passage of said Act; and the said William Starr, at the time of presenting his petition as surviving partner of William Starr and Joseph Price as aforesaid, having produced to the said Court, the recent in writing of so many of their creditors, as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by them at the time of passing the said Act.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said Court, that the said William Starr, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the daily papers of the city of Baltimore, for three months before the seventh day of October next) give notice to their creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the Court House in the said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said seventh day of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said William Starr, then and there taking the oath by the said Act prescribed for delivering up their property.

Signed by order, WM. GIBSON, Clerk. July 7 d3m

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on Saturday the 27th inst. from the country residence of the subscriber, a Negro Man called PETER, formerly owned by Mr. Joseph Young, of this city. He is about 5 feet 6 inches high, stout make, rather handsome than otherwise, has tolerable good teeth, was very lame when he went off, owing to the wheel of a carriage in cleaning it falling upon his foot; has a particular aversion to giving a direct answer; but always says, "I reckon," to every question the most positive; and is constantly talking to himself as if grumbling. His clothes were numerous, among them was a blue cloth coat, a brown cloth coffee, rather rusty, though not much worn; a flower colored twilled nankeen coat, considerably faded from washing; the sleeves of which have been let out; several handsome Muscullunder vests of different patterns, all very short; shirts of fine white Irish linen; pantaloons and garters of India nankeen, very good, and of the present mode; a fashionable Beaver hat, quite new; maker's name in the crown, Wm. Branton, Hatter, 131, Market-street, Baltimore. The above reward will be given for apprehending said negro out of the state, and lodging him in jail so that I get him again, or fifty dollars if within the state. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned of bringing him under penalty of the law to his utmost extent.

Wm. B. BARNEY. N. B. He was seen in several parts of the city at and after 9 o'clock the day of his escape. July 29

Notice.

Stolen last night, out of captain Wells's pasture, at this place,

A bay HORSE, six years old, not 5 feet high; with tail, has been docked, and hanging mane; a projecting full eye; two hind feet white, which is all the white about him I recollect; remarkably strong built, and large bodied for his height; trots well, paces and gallops but indifferently; carries himself low, and is rather inclined to be dull; works in any kind of harness. I will give twenty dollars reward for the horse alone, or fifty for the horse and thief, on his being convicted. JAMES STRANGE. Petersburg, August 1 (7) e08r

To the Public.

CALEB M'KENZIE, Mathematical Instrument Maker from Philadelphia, at No. 21, Thames-street, Fell's-Point, next door to Mr. James Ramsey's, takes this method of informing the citizens of Baltimore, the Mercantile and seafaring part in particular, that he has been induced, in consequence of the death of Mr. Sweeney, to leave a very good establishment in Philadelphia for the purpose of carrying on the above business in this city where he flatters himself from his being regularly brought up to his profession, by an apprenticeship of seven years, aided to the experience of five years as a foreman, and two years as a master, he shall be enabled to give every satisfaction to those gentlemen who may please to honor him with their business; and as C. M'Kenzie is the only person at present in this city, who has been regularly bred in his profession, he has reason to hope that he will have no cause to regret the exchange he has made.

N. B. Sextants, Quadrants, Telescopes and Compasses cleaned and repaired in the most correct manner. Brass and wood compasses made to any size or dimension. Gauging rods of all kinds made on the most approved construction.

I do certify that the bearer Caleb M'Kenzie has been regularly instructed by me, in the Mathematical and Optical branches of business, and that he is capable of carrying on the same in such a manner, as to give satisfaction to all those who are inclined to employ him. THOMAS BIGGS, Mathematical and Optical Instrument maker, No. 85, South Front-street, Philadelphia. We believe the above character given of Mr. Caleb M'Kenzie, to be strictly just and well deserved. For Sale or Rent,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS, THAT commodious HOUSE and LOT, the present residence of the subscriber, situated in Dulany-street. The terms of sale will be made accommodating, and an extensive credit, if required. This property is remarkably well situated, as to its commanding the advantages of a free open air, and most excellent water—and the house only a few years built, is substantial and of a very convenient and comfortable plan. Other particulars may be known by applying on the premises to JAMES STEWART. August 4 e02w

To Let,

And possession given immediately, A large handsome commodious BRICK back building, with kitchen and smoke house complete; situated on Union-street, not far distant from the new market house, in the neighborhood of Mr. J. Herne's, at present occupied by Mr. Packlaris. The lot is 30 feet in front, and runs back 170 feet—its situation and advantages render it worthy of the attention of a family, who wish to live retired and enjoy good health. For terms, apply to OWEN DORSEY, Who will give information of a youth of respectable connections and good morals, desirous of engaging in a wholesale, or extensive retail store, on accommodating terms. April 22

GERMAN Evangelical Reformed Church LOTTERY.

THE subscribers having been appointed by the Members of the German Evangelical Reformed Church of Baltimore, as Managers of a Lottery, authorized by the General assembly of Maryland, and the corporation of the city of Baltimore, intended to raise a sum of money for the erection of a Parsonage and a School House, and to finish their House of Worship, offer to the public the following SCHEME:

1 prize of	$2,500
1 - of	1,000
2 - of 500	1,000
15 - of 200	1,000
9 - of 100	900
50 - of 50	1,000
52 - of 20	1,040
410 - of 6	2,460
11,500 - of 3	34,500
The first 3 dollar prize
drawn after 2000 tickets,
Do. do. 1000	200
Do. do. 6000	300
Do. do. 8000	400
Do. do. 10,000	500
The last 3 dollar prize,
4,000
Sum raised, including expence,
12,000

21,000 Tickets, at Five Dollars each, 60,000 From the above scheme it appears that there are no blanks, and that the purchaser of tickets will have to pay no more than Two Dollars in advance on each ticket—and as the full price of each ticket is Five Dollars, there will remain due on each ticket Three Dollars, which will be retained out of the prize money.

The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope, will produce such a speedy sale of tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day.

The prizes will be paid in sixty days after the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months will be considered as generous donations to church.
