PROPOSAL

By the Rev. George Hagerty & George Dobbin and Murphy, To publish in one octavo volume, price to subscribers one dollar fifty cents, neatly bound, payable on delivery, Rev. John Wesley, A. M. To which will be prefixed, ...

A COMPREHENSIVE HISTORY OF THE WESLEY

And an Appendix, of the Methodist Church throughout the United States: with his funeral sermon preached by Dr. White-A correct engraved Portrait of Ms Wesley will embellish the volume.

THE publication of this volume was occaesteemed Friends and Christian Professors. The Methodist Churches in the various States of the Union are very numerous, and their societies large; it is not surprising, therefore, that among their members there should be a considerable proportion who, from different causes, remain unacquainted with the character and labors of their founder; and with the immense success which has accompanied the ministrations of the various instruments employed to diffuse the knowledge of that 'life and immortality which he brought to light through the gospel."; The Christian feels a peculiar interest in the history of those men and gospel ministers, whose piety, "like a city set upon a hill, could not be hidden;" whose example so luminously shone among men "that others seeing their good works, glorified their Father in heaven;" whose zeal for the Redeemer animated them to surmount every difficulty to propagate that heavenly doctrine which " is a faithful saying, and wor thy of all acceptation, that Jesus Christ came into the world to save even the chief of sinners; and whose perseverance and efforts, aided by the spirit of God, were crowned with unusual success: "the eyes of numberless sinners being opened, and themselves turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God."

The memoirs of eminently pious men are undoubtedly the most instructive, interesting and valuable species of writing; it combines en ry advantage which good example produces; it encourages those who study their lives, to ceaseless efforts in the work of religion; it animates them resolutely to pursue the path which leads to eternal life; and it constantly exhilerates them with the anticipation of a similarly glorious exit, and the same inconceivably beatific reward. Among those whose charaster, talents, labors and usefulness, will live in the memory of all the ensuing ages of the church, sew modern Christians have stronger claims upon the attention of their successors than the Rev. John Wesley; whose extraordinary zeal, incessant exertions, unsullied purity of motive, indefatigable perseverance, unyielding fortitude, irreproachable uprightness and astonishing prosperity in the immaculate Jesus' cause, joined to the variety of his writings, the number of Christians who have united with the societies which he and his associates established, raise him to a very high rank among those who are born to dispel darkness from the human mind, and to disseminate the cheering and benign lustre of evangelica' day. The progress of the Methodist Church in the United States is too important a topic to be omitted-hence Bishop Asbury's relation of his ministerial employment and its blessed effects, has been consulted, and intelligent persons in the society have kindly communicated the result of their researches on this subject.

The general want of a portable relation of the founder of the Methodist Societies, and of the means which, used under the blessing of God, have rendered their members so numerous, authorise a presumption, that this review of Mr. Wesley's life will be acceptable to all those "who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sin-
