M'Kenzie is the only person at present in this city, who has been regularly bred to his profession, he has reason to hope that he will have no cause to regret the exchange he has made. N. B. AN attempt was made, last evening, to set fire to a new house, in an unfinished state, in Pratt-street, next to the corner of Sharp-street. Fortunately the light was discovered at so early a period as to admit of its extinguishment before any serious damage was done. The fire, contained in a queensware coffee pot, figured, blue and white, had been thrown through the cellar window into the cellar; by which means the fire was communicated to a quantity of shavings. A woman was seen passing from the back of the house a short time before the flames were discovered. This is stated under a conception that it may aid in the detection of the base offender. The subscriber, the proprietor of the house, will pay the above reward to any person who will effect the apprehension and conviction of the diabolical incendiary or incendiaries. RICHARD H.
