Our delegates to the last-legislature more had great need of learned, vigilint and enterprising representatives—one of the gentlemen in particular, a man of the most profound erudition, and who exerted all his talents in the argument relative to the abolition of the general court, and the re-organization of the different courts of judicature, which compose the six judicial districts of the state, and whose services in that capacity, to the city, has ever met the approbation of his constituents; yet, there is a serious omission in the organization of this judicial district, which omission must have escaped the attention of my worthy friend; that is, the constitution of a mayor's court, and giving that court jurisdiction to hear and determine all causes coming within the legal denomination of petit lurceny, and circumstanced assaults and batteries, which will ultimately tend to the removing of many inconveniencies that are in the highest degree oppressive to the unfortunate person whose passion, or necessity, may lead him to commit any one of the above specified crimes, and which can never be totally repressed in a city of so extensive a populace as Baltimore. DANBURY (Conn.) Sept. 3. On Monday the 1st inst. the printer of the Republican Farmer was complimerted with an attachment from John R. Landon, sheriff of Lichfield county, for three thousand dollars. The suit is brought before Litchfield county court on the fourth Tuesday of September, and is grounded upon a supposed desamation of his character as sheriff in his conductowards Selleck Osborne. The printer of this paper, has heard of fines inflicted upon Osborne and Ashley to the amount of 700 dollars; of the verdict of the jury against Babcock for 1000 dollars ; against Willian Hart, for 2,300 dollars; and the imprisonment of Selleck Osborne, for a time known only to his oppressors. He anticipates his fate with resignation-and is happy in the consolation, that although he has not the honor of being one of the first in suffering, yet he trusts in God, he may be one of the last. If the hard carnings of many years labourious industry must be swept away, and a depenwould far exceed the intention of my dent family rendered wretched, for the purpose of crushing a republican press.; keep the minds of my fellow citizens free yet be will not bend the knee to Baal, from party prejudice, and call them to nor thall down and worship the golden

CHARLESTON, September 6.

A number of the Republicans in this ... city, with regret and indignation, have heard of the oppressive measures, which have taken place in Litchfield, in Counecticul, in relation to Mr. SELLICK OS-BORNE.
